Break Ground For YMCA Complex

DIGGING IT — Members of the YMCA Building Committee turn over the first soil for the new facility on Nicholas Drive. They are, from the left, Bob Johnson, Jim Edman, Asa Elsea, Bill Lyle, Dick Penn, Paul Marshall, Don Collins, Dr. Louise Warner, and Harold Hewitt. John Raterman is also a member of the committee.

Wednesday's ground breaking for the new Pickaway County Family YMCA satisfied those "dreamers of dreams" who had visions of the family entertainment and educational complex more than 10 years ago.

"We must continue to go forward in faith," said Pastor Carl Zehner who gave the invocation at the ceremony which signalled the start of the first phase of the total project. Building will be completed in the spring of 1978.

In opening remarks, Jim Edman, YMCA Board President, stressed the importance of providing a functional building with existing funds and pledge moneys. However, he noted that the total complex will not be considered complete until projected construction costs can be raised.

"We are continuing our fund-raising campaign," he said, "in hopes that we will be able to add Phase 2 at the proper time." Edman said that an additional $35,000 has been raised since plans were announced to proceed with construction of the functional building.

Excavation work for Phase I actually began several minutes after the ground breaking ceremony. Wolfe & West Construction Company agreed to donate the excavation work, Edman said.

YMCA BOARD — Members of the YMCA Board of Directors were on hand at the ground breaking of the new YMCA facility on Nicholas Drive Wednesday. Construction work began following the ceremony and the functional building is expected to be completed by May, 1978. Other local dignitaries were on hand at the ground breaking.

The initial construction phase of the project will include a natatorium with six-lane pool and diving facilities, a gymnasium with space for a long basketball court, two smaller courts, volleyball courts, locker rooms for men and women, exercise facilities, and linked office space.

Phase 2 will include a large meeting area, youth game room, and office space. Because the building will be of pre-engineered steel construction, remodeling in the future will be no problem.

The 6½ acre Nicholas Drive location also provides room to expand one work-out gymnasium towards Nicholas Drive, Health Clubs, and space for community club rooms, handball and racquet ball courts to the south, tennis courts, a jogging path, and ample parking area.

The J. Boyd Stout Company is the general contractor for the work, and the building was designed by Titsch and Dunker, architects.

Members of the YMCA Building Committee, which has worked six years developing plans for the raising of funds and construction of the building, are Don Collins, Jim Edman, Asa Elsea, Harold Hewitt, William Lyle, Paul Marshall, Richard Penn, John Raterman, and Dr. Louise Warner. Robert M. Johnson is chairman of the Building Committee.

Grand Jury Indicts Park

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tongsun Park, the South Korean businessman who vows he will not return to the United States and face questions about alleged attempts at influencebuying in Congress, reportedly has been indicted by a federal grand jury.

A congressional source Wednesday quoted a Justice Department official as saying a sealed indictment was handed up last Friday against Park, who fled the country nearly a year ago and was last reported to be in South Korea.

The congressional source did not say what charge was specified in the indictment.

A Justice Department spokesman refused to comment about the report.

But the Washington Post reported today that the sealed indictment against Park was filed before U.S. District Judge John Pratt here. It said the nature of the charge could not be learned.

The paper quoted a source familiar with the evidence as saying that the indictment might be used to pressure Park to return to the United States and testify with the understanding that the indictment then would be dropped. The United States has no extradition treaty with South Korea.

Pratt said Wednesday night that he recently had received sealed grand jury indictments but said he did not know what they contained. "I know nothing about it," he said when asked whether Park was named in any of the indictments.

Park, a 42-year-old millionaire rice dealer who first came to Washington in the 1950s as a student, has been accused of spreading hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in gifts and cash to numerous congressmen and other U.S. government officials in recent years.

Both Park and the congressmen who admit receiving his contributions and gifts deny any illegality.

The Justice Department, according to the congressional source, had been trying to gather evidence against Park in connection with possible bribery charges, mail fraud, defrauding a federally chartered bank and income tax evasion.

The Internal Revenue Service last January filed liens against the South Korean businessman in three states and the District of Columbia, charging that he owed back taxes, interest and penalties of more than $4.5 million from the years 1972-75.

The White House and Atty. Gen. Griffin Bell have said they are using diplomatic channels to enlist the help of the South Korean government in questioning Park.

The Justice Department this summer turned over to House investigators a list of at least 20 congressmen and other officials who received cash or other gifts from Park. Seven congressmen publicly have acknowledged accepting campaign contributions from Park.

Columbus Board Of Education Seeks Delay Of Desegregation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Columbus Board of Education has asked U.S. District Court Judge Robert M. Duncan to delay his order that desegregation of the city's schools begin in January.

The city's desegregation plan, endorsed Wednesday by the State Board of Education, was submitted to Duncan Tuesday.

The plans call for the busing of 41,487 students by September 1978, beginning in elementary schools in January and secondary schools in September.

The district's total attendance last year was 96,000 of which 34 per cent were nonwhite.

But a transportation study submitted by the state board concluded it would be virtually impossible to get new buses to begin implementation of the plan in January.

The city school board contends that a delay would allow the district to purchase new buses next spring, avoiding having to buy used buses this fall.

If Duncan refuses to stay his order, Columbus school board President Steven Boley said the board would formally ask Duncan to delay implementation while it petitions the appeals court to overturn the order.

Leo Ross, attorney for the NAACP, which filed the desegregation suit, would fight any attempt to delay the plan.

Ross maintained that safe, dependable used buses are available. He said the board's recommendation against using such buses is insufficient reason to delay Duncan's implementation schedule.

However, Ross said the new Columbus plan looks adequate.

"I think this new plan is one that might very well suffice," Ross said.

Swimmer Gives Up

FAIRPORT HARBOR, Ohio (AP) — Auto worker Bob Elfers gave up his 63-mile marathon swim across Lake Erie early today less than halfway from his goal in Canada, the Coast Guard said.

Seaman Gary Williams said Elfers decided to quit because of two-to-three-foot waves.

"He was in good condition. He was doing real fine," said Williams.

It was the second attempt by the 41-year-old Elfers to swim the lake. He abandoned his first attempt last year just 20 miles short of the goal.

Elfers returned to an accompanying boat about 1:20 a.m. and arrived at Fairport Harbor at 4, Williams said. He had gotten 28 miles across the lake.

Elfers, who describes himself as a recovering alcoholic, was optimistic late Wednesday that he would make it this time and set a record for open water swimming.

He swam north instead of south this time to take advantage of lake currents. Last year, he had to fight the wake of his guideboat, but this year the boat is leading further ahead and dropping bouys Elfers can follow.

A small boat was alongside with persons to supply him with food and check on his physical condition.

Weather

Partly cloudy, warm, and humid through Friday with thunderstorms expected in the afternoon and evening periods. Highs will be near 95, while the low tonight will be near 75. There is a 30 per cent chance of rain this afternoon and evening, and a 50 per cent chance tomorrow. Temperature extremes Wednesday were 91 and 69.

Seek School Board Posts

Contested races will highlight the election of new school board members in three districts.

Filing deadline for Board of Education positions was Thursday, according to the Pickaway County Board of Elections.

In the Logan Elm School District, voters will select three board members from four candidates.

The four are Franklin Seimer, 1342 Northridge Road; Robert D. Bowers, 16252 Maple St., Laurelville; Carolyn McCoy, 1775 Warner Huffer Road; and Gary D. Weaver, 7050 Sherwood Court.

Seimer and Bowers are seeking reelection.

Four candidates will be fighting for two vacancies on the Teays Valley Board of Education.

Candidates are Jo Ann Sykes Sanders, 17321 Ringgold-Northern Road; Jack E. Warner, 5353 Williams Road; Roger L. Kline, 5320 Ashville-Fairfield Road; and Betty Jean Guthrie, 2074 Weigand Road, Lockbourne.

Warner is the lone incumbent.

Three candidates will be battling for two vacancies on the Circleville Board of Education.

Candidates are Sharon W. Blecha, 376 Meadow Lane; Jean Droste, 670 Ridgewood Dr.; and Forrest A. Brown, 124 N. Scioto St.

Brown is an incumbent board member.

In the Westfall School District, David M. Long, Route 1, New Holland, and Jeanne Lett, 9724 Route 62, Orient, are the lone candidates seeking to retain their seats.

And on the Pickaway County Board of Education, Everett R. Beers, 15762 Ringgold-Northern Road; Wendell C. Evans, 13065 Badger Road; and Bonnie L. Hildenbrand, 437 Monticello St., are the only candidates seeking reelection.

MRS. GEORGE DEFENBAUGH

Jessie Defenbaugh Will Be 100 Years Old On Friday

By ROBERTA SWOPE
Herald Society Editor

Mrs. George (Jessie) Defenbaugh, 701 N. Court St., will be 100 years young on September 2. She will be guest of honor at a family party on her birthday and also at an open house hosted by her niece, Mrs. Carrie Marcum from 1-5 p.m., September 4 at the N. Court St. address. The omission of gifts is requested.

Mrs. Defenbaugh was the eldest of twins born September 2, 1877 in Ada, Ohio to Rufus and Carrie Karshner Stump.

The family moved to Laurelville when the twins were two years of age. Jessie and Bessie received their formal education in Laurelville, in the one room school house. Jessie Warner, as she was known, stated that her fondest memories of school lie in the remembrance of Abby Roush, her teacher.

Courting in those days was different than that of today in that Mr. Defenbaugh first wrote Jessie Warner a letter asking if he could bring her home from church. She wrote back and told him he could, as he and his family were well known by her family and they were neighbors. Jessie stated "From that time on he lived for me alone."

Jessie and George were married May 2, 1902 in her parents home when she was 24 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Defenbaugh were the parents of one son Ivan Defenbaugh, who died at age 39 from an accidental shooting.

Asked to what she attributed her long life, she stated "clean living and a Christian home."

Vietnam Veterans Graduate Friday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ninety disabled Vietnam Veterans, graduates of a two-week Bureau of Employment Services training program will receive certificates from Gov. James A. Rhodes on Friday.

The disabled veterans will work in BES offices in 27 Ohio cities helping unemployed disabled veterans as well as other service veterans find employment and calling on employers for their help.

The training program is part of the Disabled Veterans Outreach Program mandated in the President's Economic Stimulus Program.

Market Report

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market headed higher today, responding to White House assurances that President Carter had no plans for wage-price standards.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials rose nearly 4 points in early trading.

Gainers took a 5-2 lead over losers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

The White House said Wednesday that the President did not have any plan under consideration to set up government standards for wages and prices.

Reports that some administration officials were proposing such a plan had depressed the market on Tuesday.

Another evident plus for the market today was the Labor Department report that the wholesale price index rose only 0.1 per cent in August.

On Wednesday the Dow Jones industrial average rose 2.60 to 861.49.

But losers outnumbered gainers by a slight margin on the NYSE.

Big Board volume reached 19.08 million shares, against 18.22 million in the previous session.

The NYSE's composite index rose .16 to 52.93.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was unchanged at 117.97.

ADC Funds Distributed

State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson's office announced today the September distribution of $35,483,332 in Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) to 517,953 recipients in Ohio's 88 counties. Pickaway County received $66,618 for 965 recipients.

Ferguson said the amount does not include the weekly ADC auxiliary payments, which will be made primarily to new recipients throughout the month, but does reflect food stamp allowances to the recipients. The state welfare department distributes food stamps, and ADC payments to those recipients choosing to receive stamps are reduced accordingly.

Auxiliary payments of $2,671,748 resulted in a total of $37,049,456 in ADC payments distributed to the counties for the month of August.

Ferguson noted the principal September payment went to 3,132 fewer recipients than the one in August, and decreased by $204,410.

ADC payments are made to families with one parent or one unemployed parent on the basis of family size and financial resources. The ADC program is funded primarily by federal and state governments.

Circleville Police patrolman Ron Smith investigated the breaking and entering of a soft drink machine at the Bonded service station, at the intersection of Lancaster Pike and Nicholas Drive this morning.

According to the report, Manager Manson Stoneburner stated that he went to the machine shortly after opening the station this morning and discovered that someone had removed the lock by snapping it with bolt cutters. After opening the machine, the thieves removed an undetermined amount of money.

Forecast For The Fields

By The Associated Press

Here is the agriculture weather advisory for Ohio provided by the National Weather Service:

Very warm weather, humid and scattered thundershowers activity through Friday.

A frontal area should move into Ohio during Saturday and permit a brief end to showers and allow cooler temperatures dropping back into 70s low 80s. Showers may return again by Monday after a fair weather day Sunday.

FIELD OPERATIONS — Scattered wetting both today and Friday will cause interruption to current field activity at least through Saturday. Drying will tend to be slow due to higher than usual humidity levels. Best drying will be today. Evaporative losses of around .15 inches is likely in the north today and .20 inches in the south. Amounts of .15 inches or less will be typical statewide Friday and Saturday.

THIRTY-DAY OUTLOOK — The outlook for September calls for temperatures to average near normal. Daily maximums can be expected to range from mid 70s to low 80s and daily minimums from low 50s in the north to the mid 50s central and mid to upper 50s in the south. Precipitation is expected to be above the median state wide. Totals for the month are likely between 2.6 and 3.3 inches. Good moisture supplies are likely for seedlings of grass, forages and for late September wheat seeding. There will be nine or 10 rainy days during the month, so field delays are likely and slower than usual dry down of corn and soybeans can be expected. There should be a good opportunity for crops to complete maturity on or ahead of schedule. Improved pastures and late hay crops can be expected.

Hurricane Warning Issued In Texas

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — A hurricane warning was issued today for the coastal area between Corpus Christi and Brownsville as Hurricane Anita, packing winds of 105 miles per hour, moved closer to the South Texas shores.

Forecasters at the National Hurricane Center in Miami also discontinued a hurricane watch posted earlier for an area between Vermillion Bay, La., and Matagorda Bay on the upper Texas coast.

At 6 a.m., EDT, the storm was located at latitude 25.9 degrees and 94.3 degrees longitude, the center said. It said the hurricane moved to within 200 miles east of Brownsville by 5 a.m., and was moving to the west at about 10 m.p.h.

Forecasters said that the evacuation of South Padre Island — a slender resort island on the coast between Corpus Christi and Brownsville — the town of Port Isabel and other coastal developments in the warning area should be completed by evening.

Although much of the island, including the Padre Island National Seashore, is uninhabited, there are extensive developments at the north end of the island near Corpus Christi and at the south end just across the bay from Port Isabel.

Earlier, Larry Mooney, chief forecaster at the National Weather Service office at Corpus Christi, had predicted that the hurricane would land between Corpus Christi and Brownsville.

Mooney said Anita is "potentially a more dangerous storm" than Celia which killed 12 in Texas in 1970.

A private forecasting firm, Storm-net, which works primarily for oil companies along the Texas coast, said late Wednesday there was a 50 per cent chance that Anita would go ashore late today at Brownsville and a 25 per cent chance of its hitting at Corpus Christi.

In Texas, Red Cross emergency stations were at the ready and more than 4,000 National Guardsmen were on two-hour standby, state officials said. Engineers were prepared to shut coastal petroleum, natural gas and chemical pipelines.

As residents along Louisiana's coast relaxed with Anita's westward movement, Texas coastal dwellers boarded up homes, secured boats and fled inland from low-lying areas. But some stayed, waiting to see which way the storm would turn.

Meanwhile, the Labor Day tourist industry at South Padre Island, which runs north from Brownsville along about 30 miles of the coast, was predictably ruined. "Cancellations are extremely high," said Dennis Ohe, assistant manager of a hotel there. "We were booked to capacity for Labor Day."

South Padre Island has an ordinance requiring evacuations of all persons from the island in the event of hurricane danger.

Market Report

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market headed higher today, responding to White House assurances that President Carter had no plans for wage-price standards.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials rose nearly 4 points in early trading.

Gainers took a 5-2 lead over losers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

The White House said Wednesday that the President did not have any plan under consideration to set up government standards for wages and prices.

Reports that some administration officials were proposing such a plan had depressed the market on Tuesday.

Another evident plus for the market today was the Labor Department report that the wholesale price index rose only 0.1 per cent in August.

On Wednesday the Dow Jones industrial average rose 2.60 to 861.49.

But losers outnumbered gainers by a slight margin on the NYSE.

Big Board volume reached 19.08 million shares, against 18.22 million in the previous session.

The NYSE's composite index rose .16 to 52.93.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was unchanged at 117.97.

ADC Funds Distributed

State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson's office announced today the September distribution of $35,483,332 in Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) to 517,953 recipients in Ohio's 88 counties. Pickaway County received $66,618 for 965 recipients.

Ferguson said the amount does not include the weekly ADC auxiliary payments, which will be made primarily to new recipients throughout the month, but does reflect food stamp allowances to the recipients. The state welfare department distributes food stamps, and ADC payments to those recipients choosing to receive stamps are reduced accordingly.

Auxiliary payments of $2,671,748 resulted in a total of $37,049,456 in ADC payments distributed to the counties for the month of August.

Ferguson noted the principal September payment went to 3,132 fewer recipients than the one in August, and decreased by $204,410.

ADC payments are made to families with one parent or one unemployed parent on the basis of family size and financial resources. The ADC program is funded primarily by federal and state governments.

Coin Machine Buglarized

Circleville Police patrolman Ron Smith investigated the breaking and entering of a soft drink machine at the Bonded service station, at the intersection of Lancaster Pike and Nicholas Drive this morning.

According to the report, Manager Manson Stoneburner stated that he went to the machine shortly after opening the station this morning and discovered that someone had removed the lock by snapping it with bolt cutters. After opening the machine, the thieves removed an undetermined amount of money.

CW-2 Jerry Lawhorn and wife Kathy announce the birth of a daughter, Michele Lynn, in Frankfort, Germany, on Aug. 23. Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ritchason of Laurelville. The maternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Gertrude Briley, also of Laurelville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Church of Laurel St., Laurelville, Ohio are the proud parents of their first child, a 9-pound girl born August 15 in Ross Medical Center. She has been named Amanda Makai.

A daughter was born August 29 in Hocking Valley Hospital, Logan, to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Daubenmire (Sandy McNichols) of Sherman St., Laurelville. Grandparents are Mrs. Fannie Green of Laurelville, Mrs. Marie Goodman of South Perry and Edgel McNichols of Columbus.

Mrs. Joe (Thelma) Smith is a patient in Doctor's Hospital, North, where she underwent surgery on last Friday.

Miss Christine DeLong, bride-elect of Daniel Patrick was honored with a kitchen shower at 7 p.m., Aug. 12 at her home on S.R. 56, South. Hostesses were Mrs. Cheryl Walls, Mrs. Rita Jones and Miss Kim Brown.

Attending the shower were Miss Ruth Neff, Mrs. Terri Neff and Mrs. Debbie Crumley of Circleville; Mrs. Steve Neff and Jeremy, Mrs. William Gooley and Adam, Miss Teresa Newman, Mrs. Darrell Arnett and Jeff, Miss Cindy Egan, Mrs. Esther Brown, Mrs. Mark Paxton, Mrs. Danny DeLong, Mrs. David Karshner, Miss Twila Thompson, Mrs. Rick Jones, Mrs. Mike DeLong, Mrs. Lucy Arledge, Mrs. Joanne Patrick, Mrs. Dan DeLong Sr.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Terry Churchhouse and Miss Terri Ebert. Games were played and winners were Sharon Neff, Chris Paxton and Terri Neff.

Michael Hardman was guest of honor at a surprise party on August 20, for his 18th birthday. The party was planned by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hardman and was held at their home at Route 1, Laurelville. Assisting Mrs. Hardman with the party plans were Mrs. Connie Hardman, Mrs. Karen Thompson, Cindy VanCuren and Terri Harris. They served pizza, potato chips, cake, punch and mints. Joining Mike in the celebration were — Chris Fouch, Tammy Klotz, April Wilamowski, Bob Salyers, Brett Imier, Tim Tatman, Debbie Klotz, Bruce Seimer, Rex and Kerry Hardman, Connie Hardman, Gary and Susan Hardman and children, the host and hostess, Don and Josephine Hardman. Mike received many nice gifts.

On last Tuesday evening, Miss Joyce DeLong, advisor, entertained the Logan Elm School cheerleaders of both the reserve and varsity teams at a cookout at her home on Jackson Road near Whisler. Those enjoying the supper and the fun and games afterward included — Cindy Gifford, Cindy Nichols, Gale Hensley, Cindy Minor, Kami Poling, Kim Thurston, Ramae Huggins, Tracey Weffler, Debbie Disbennett, Jona Duvall and Kim Nichols.

Those helping Joyce entertain the group and serve the picnic supper were her mother, Mrs. Fred DeLong, her sister Mrs. Carol Reichelderfer and Miss Melanie Maxson.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Wolf celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary on Aug. 28 at their home on Middlefork Road. Enjoying the carry-in supper with them were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Eveland, Mr. and Mrs. Michel Eveland and Mr. and Mrs. Marty Eveland and Marcey. Late comers were Rita Carpenter and Roger Weaver. Mike Eveland was also celebrating his ?? (and he thinks that is old) birthday which was Aug. 29. The Wolf's other daughter and son-in-law, Tom and Martha Rose Smith were on vacation and couldn't attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ebert entertained with a wiener roast at their trailer home on Blue Creek Road last Friday evening. Their guests were— Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Thress, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ebert and family, Vera Ebert, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ebert, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ebert and Matt, Sherri Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Bainter and Tink, Mrs. Ruth Reid, Kenny Dille, Mrs. Larry McNichols, Tami and Tabitha, and Tom Blum.

Everyone enjoyed the evening in spite of the rain that arrived just as the fire was right for roasting and the operation had to be transferred into the oven in the kitchen, but the wieners were devoured anyway, after the scramble to get tables, chairs, and food carried onto the patio. Isn't it funny how quickly the weather can change your plans.

Mrs. Peggy Butts entertained with a family birthday dinner at her home on Thompson Road last Sunday. Enjoying the carry-in dinner and the day of visiting were— Mrs. Eloise (Butts) Newcock of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Therrell VanCuren, Cindy, Scott and Matt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bruce, Mrs. Connie Hardman and sons Rex and Kerry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butts, Mike Butts and the hostess, Mrs. Butts.

Those in the group who were celebrating recent and coming soon birthdays were Mrs. Newcock, Connie Hardman, Therrell VanCuren and Bob Butts. A beautiful cake was baked and decorated with the names of the honored guests, by Mrs. Teresa Bruce.

A reunion of the Dille family, descendants of the late E. Clifford and Mabel Dille was held last Sunday at the Laurelville riding club. Those attending from the Laurelville area were — Mr. Leslie Dille, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spicer and Brian, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Dille and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Martin and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Ash, Rita and George Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ash and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Dille and family, Mrs. Mary Jones and daughters, Paul Lively,

Mr. and Mrs. Wingett Dille and son, Mr. and Mrs. James Winnett and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Harless, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dille, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Thomas and family, Kenny Dille, Twila Thompson, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, Darlene Karr, Mr. and Mrs. Art Dille, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Davis and family, Harry Dille and children and John Dille.

Those from Circleville were Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Dille and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Holbrook, the Rev. Paul Mercer of McArthur, Ohio and Merrill Imier of Rt. 1, Kingston.

Mrs. Jewell Hinton, supervisor of cooks in the Logan Elm school district, and three cooks, Mrs. Bernice Pennington, Mrs. Violet Thompson and Mrs. June Poling attended the Southeast Workshop for cooks at Portsmouth on Aug. 23 and 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Karr of Columbus visited last Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Cunningham of Ojai, California, and his aunt, Mrs. Helen Winner at the Winner home in Laurelville. On Thursday Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Winner and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Jinks visited with Mrs. Loren Jinks and family of Urichsville, Ohio.

Miss Shirley Daubenmire, 13-year-old daughter of Mrs. Fannie Green of Laurelville was one of the winners of an essay contest on "Drug Abuse" recently sponsored by the Circleville Mental Health Center. The winners enjoyed a trip to Red Bird stadium last Friday to see the Reds play baseball. Shirley really enjoyed the trip and the game and she wants to thank the sponsors of the contest.

Last Thursday night at 11:55 the local marshall, David Younker was called to Creamery Hill Road to check on a car that was sitting in the middle of the road. The car was brought into town and the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles was contacted to find who the owner might be. To everyone's surprise, it was found that duplicate sets of tags of that particular number had been issued. One had been issued to the owner of a '76 Dodge in Columbus and the other was on the car in Laurelville, a '65 Plymouth which belongs to a resident in McArthur. At latest report, officers were trying to find the McArthur resident to learn why their car was on Creamery Hill Road without a driver.

Mrs. Golda Paxton and Maxine Krisher were members of a group of United Methodist Women from the Newark District of the United Methodist churches who spent three days recently in Kentucky. They were taken on a tour of Berea College in Berea, Ky. and later visited the Henderson Settlement at Frakes, Ky. The second day they spent at Red Bird Mission at Beverly, Ky. One night they saw the outdoor drama "The Book of Job" near Pine Mountain Lodge. The trip was made by chartered bus.

Robert Fausnaugh and children, Russell Fausnaugh of Circleville and Mrs. Ruth Reid visited Mrs. Linda Fausnaugh in University Hospital last Saturday. She underwent surgery on Aug. 22. Her visitors on Tuesday were the Rev. Lynn Sumners and Bob Grate.

The Hopper Brothers and Connie will be at the Laurelville Church of God on the afternoon of Sept. 4, at 2:30 for a songfest. This is one of the stops on the tour they are making.

Gas Heat Costs More

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Customers who heat their residences with natural gas can expect their annual bills to increase by about $50 as a result of an increase announced today by Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc.

The firm plans to increase the cost of gas by 27 cents a thousand cubic feet beginning Oct. 1. The average home furnace burns 35,000 cubic feet of gas in winter months. The average annual use is 180,000 cubic feet.

"The rate change is the result of increases in the price producers are being permitted to charge for new gas at the wellhead and adjustments in the rates charged by Columbia Gas of Ohio and Columbia Gas Transmission Corp.," a company spokesman said.

The new rate will be reviewed by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio but the body does not have to approve the increase. The higher cost is a pass through allowed by Ohio law. The new price allegedly will not increase Columbia's profits but only allow the firm to recover the higher cost it must pay for the product.

Should the PUCO determine, however, that the increase will boost gas company profits, it may disallow all or part of the higher cost.

Alien Tide Gains

If anyone in Washington is surprised to learn that the number of illegal aliens coming into the United States from Mexico has risen 51 per cent since the President announced his limited amnesty program for those already in the country illegally, it is because they don't appreciate the significance of the problem.

The amnesty Program, which — if Congress approves — will provide eventual citizenship for illegal aliens in the U.S. since at least 1970, is an open invitation for all people of any nationality desperate for a better life to take their chances on coming in now.

To qualify for permanent residence they would at some future date have to prove they were here at least since 1970.

But unless one greatly overestimates the profit potential to the unscrupulous in this business, a black market in papers documenting such residencies already is developing in regions where the aliens are concentrated.

If the problem of what to do about millions of illegal aliens already in the United States undiscovered was insolvable, it is compounded now.

Tell It Like It Is

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE
NEW YORK — Updating today's dictionaries to fit the lingo of the times is not everyone's cup of tea. It's the special bag of America's grammarians and, specializationwise, there aren't many of them left to turn to.

(The above paragraph illustrates the problem: is "updating" a legitimate word? Can a "cup of tea" accurately be anything but a drink, and a "bag" anything but a sack? Is the suffix "-wise" really acceptable, technicalwise? Is it okay - provided "okay" is proper - to end a sentence with a preposition?)

The easy answer to all of these questions would be yes. There are many people who say that anything goes in these days of gradification. "Gradification," by the way, means raising academic grades by lowering standards.

It's not an easy problem for the dictionaries (not a word, but who cares?) to sort out the good from the no-no's in today's complex language patterns. Why should a word like "hair-splitting" (quibbling) be valid in dictionaries, while a word like "party-splitting" (self-evident) be ruled out? "Because," explains an editor lamely, "the idea of splitting from a party - in other words, departing from it - is a relatively new form of slang. It could remain a part of the language, or it could be quickly dropped, as many slang expressions are. We have to wait it out, to see if it's widely accepted and enduring."

And even then, it might be turned down as inappropriate for glorification in the big books of valid words. Just because a word is in common usage doesn't make it acceptable.

emulate their parents. The parents emulate the kids. So the teenagers dictate our most vibrant new language. We in the dictionary business find compromises.

"For example, when you were dating I'll bet you 'necked.' Your parents 'sparked.' Your kids 'make out.' Okay - all those words are in the dictionaries now. The dictionaries just get fatter."

The chief difficulty, as mentioned earlier, is that conservatives on the semantics committees, don't like some of the more colorful slang and fear that it shouldn't be entered because, among other reasons, it may be obsolete before it reaches the bookstores.

Take the new words now under consideration by the Merriam Webster folks: "punk rock" (hard rock music by performers dressed like punks); "disco-genics" (therapy for ailments such as a slipped disc, gotten while dancing at discos); "rock 'n' rouge" (rock music played by male musicians made up to look feminine), and "stringkini" (a bikini, fastened with strings).

But the grammarians are trying to cling to some sort of semantic values. I mean, there have to be standards in dictionaries.

A few years ago, I remember, there was much concern that the dictionaries of the 1960s had been far too permissive. New words had cropped up in the speech patterns of Americans at an alarmingly swift rate, and they had been entered into dictionaries simply because they were common usage; far too common, semanticists agreed in a grammarian backlash, to be acceptable in the official textbooks of the English language.

Example: at a panel meeting to separate the acceptables from the bannables (is that a word?) in a new American Heritage Dictionary, it was agreed that "who," could be substituted for "whom" in speech - but not in writing. The verb "enthuse" was ruled out: "By God, let's hold the line on this one!" pleaded an editor. Also banned was the verb "premiere," as in "A new symphony was premiered last night" . . . "And derriared at the same time?" observed a grammarian, caustically.

Many publishers who put out the hundreds of word books now on the library and book store shelves, agree that some slang corrupts the language. Therefore, they have put out such volumes and dictionaries of slang. Stuart Berg Flexner, who edited Random House's first such book, told me that "a split infinitive is of little importance to today's youth; grammar is decidedly not their hang-up. But I feel that the kids," he said, "are perfectly proper in using the special type of slang which they have selected. Some adults who have an interest in good vocabulary, not to mention the Puritan ethic, are shocked by today's slang - but kids are using words that are particularly suitable to their generation. They are shortened methods of self-expression, and they are meaningful because these are the words which they personally have chosen."

Quick and expressive words, he felt, are good for a quick-moving society. Many of youth's words have made the traditional dictionaries, after several years in the slang ranks. "This is because kids are taking over our culture," Flexner smiled. "They don't

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My husband is furious. He went to a doctor for a medical checkup. The doctor spent 40 minutes talking to him, and only 15 minutes examining him. Now he wants to see my husband again in about a week. Does this sound reasonable to you?

Mrs. N.R., Wash.

Dear Mrs. R.:
It sounds very reasonable to me. In fact, I believe that spending a long time with a new patient lays the groundwork for an excellent relationship between a doctor and his patient.

In addition to developing this rapport, a detailed history of a patient's past medical background gives excellent insight into his physical and emotional makeup.

Many patients delay by many months going to the doctor's office because of their high anxiety levels. All the time they are building up courage to see the doctor they are also building up their fears. When they finally do arrive they want to know all the answers that very day. Many can hardly understand why it takes so many minutes of talk before the examination begins. They may not realize the importance of a family tree of illnesses, such as diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease, or tuberculosis in the general profile of one's health.

Childhood diseases, injuries, personal health habits, sleep patterns, occupation, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, eating habits and recreational activities are of enormous importance. The patient's emotional background, family relationships and ability to cope with everyday tensions play a significant role in the causes of illness and the eventual cure.

Why do you think the doctor wants to see your husband again? On the next visit, he will have accumulated the laboratory reports, the blood studies and the electrocardiogram interpretation. These, in addition to his other findings and blood pressure readings will definitely point to a better comprehension of your husband's health. More visits may be necessary if he requires treatment.

If, during these initial visits, your husband does not establish a feeling of trust, then both he and his doctor will be deprived of a valuable relationship.

In the past few months I've often heard the expression "liver scan" or "brain scan." Do all patients need this?

Dear Mr. R.:
A scanning is not a routine part of a general examination. It is performed when there is some suggestion that an underlying problem exists in one of the large organs of the body. Some metals like iron, phosphorus, gold and others are made radioactive. When injected into the bloodstream some of them may have a special affinity for some organs. An instrument like the Geiger counter can then detect the amount of radioactive isotopes in the organ and thus give valuable information to the doctor.

New words had cropped up in the speech patterns of Americans at an alarmingly swift rate, and they had been entered into dictionaries simply because they were common usage; far too common, semanticists agreed in a grammarian backlash, to be acceptable in the official textbooks of the English language.

Example: at a panel meeting to separate the acceptables from the bannables (is that a word?) in a new American Heritage Dictionary, it was agreed that "who" could be substituted for "whom" in speech - but not in writing. The verb "enthuse" was ruled out: "By God, let's hold the line on this one!" pleaded an editor. Also banned was the verb "premiere," as in "A new symphony was premiered last night".... "And derrièred at the same time?" observed a grammarian, caustically.

"Some of these words will make it, and some will have had it within a year. Kids are fickle. When a word has had it, it's not just passe - it's totally dead!"

And deathwise, man, that's the words bag a word can be in... which is why writing dictionaries is a bad rap.

"Do you have something that didn't turn out so good that I could pass off as homemade?"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My husband is furious. He went to a doctor for a medical checkup. The doctor spent 40 minutes talking to him, and only 15 minutes examining him. Now he wants to see my husband again in about a week. Does this sound reasonable to you?

Mrs. N.R., Wash.

Dear Mrs. R.:

It sounds very reasonable to me. In fact, I believe that spending a long time with a new patient lays the groundwork for an excellent relationship between a doctor and his patient.

In addition to developing this rapport, a detailed history of a patient's past medical background gives excellent insight into his physical and emotional makeup.

Many patients delay by many months going to the doctor's office because of their high anxiety levels. All the time they are building up courage to see the doctor they are also building up their fears. When they finally do arrive they want to know all the answers that very day. Many can hardly understand why it takes so many minutes of talk before the examination begins. They may not realize the importance of a family tree of illnesses, such as diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease, or tuberculosis in the general profile of one's health.

Childhood diseases, injuries, personal health habits, sleep patterns, occupation, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, eating habits and recreational activities are of enormous importance. The patient's emotional background, family relationships and ability to cope with everyday tensions play a significant role in the causes of illness and the eventual cure.

Why do you think the doctor wants to see your husband again? On the next visit, he will have accumulated the laboratory reports, the blood studies and the electrocardiogram interpretation. These, in addition to his other findings and blood pressure readings will definitely point to a better comprehension of your husband's health. More visits may be necessary if he requires treatment.

If, during these initial visits, your husband does not establish a feeling of trust, then both he and his doctor will be deprived of a valuable relationship.

In the past few months I've often heard the expression "liver scan" or "brain scan." Do all patients need this?

Dear Mr. R.:

A scanning is not a routine part of a general examination. It is performed when there is some suggestion that an underlying problem exists in one of the large organs of the body. Some metals like iron, phosphorus, gold and others are made radioactive. When injected into the bloodstream some of them may have a special affinity for some organs. An instrument like the Geiger counter can then detect the amount of radioactive isotopes in the organ and thus give valuable information to the doctor.

Five Points News

By MRS. FRANCIS FURNISS

A church steeple was first built on the town church so that anyone anywhere in the village could look out and locate the house of worship. The steeple on the church was the highest point in town. This was a physical fact and the people of the Lord knew it was a spiritual fact also. The church is still filled with people who have reached the highest point of Godly maturity and who are filled with the highest degree of Christian love for God and man. So go to the church of your choice next Sunday and you will be blessed.

Holy Communion was observed Sunday morning at the Five Points United Methodist Church with the Rev. Linda Stafford in charge. The official board meeting of the Five Points United Methodist will be held at the church on Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. Sept. 6 with another meeting that evening about the parsonage repair. All interested members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter were Saturday evening guests of Mrs. Bertha Porter and Miss Lillian Hess in Williamsport and were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dick and sons.

Mrs. Patsy Drummond was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hott of near Robtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Rasor and family and Orville and Lulu Rasor of Grove City Sunday evening.

Bob Hatfield and Betty Hanawalt attended the Barthelmas Reunion Sunday at Ted Lewis Park in Circleville.

Brent Hanawalt has returned home following two weeks training spent at National Guard Camp at Grayling, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Angles, Mr. and Mrs. Robert See, Chris and Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Angles, and Mr. and Mrs. Kay Angles, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter and family were among the one hundred and three who attended the Angles Reunion Sunday at Ted Lewis Park in Circleville. Plans were made to meet next year on the same date and place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jordan of Mt. Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Benny Hatfield and family of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brewer of Orient, Mr. Danny Gossard of Mt. Sterling and Lloyd Grabill were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dilley and family. The occasion celebrated Earl's birthday.

Miss Karen Streitenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Streitenberger became the bride of Rick Blanton at a beautiful wedding ceremony Saturday evening in the Five Points United Methodist Church. A reception was held in the social room following the ceremony. Our sincere congratulations to the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Armentrout and children Tammy Jo and Chad and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Armentrout and daughter Shawna were Saturday evening guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Armentrout.

Kenneth Drummond attended the wedding of his cousin Gordon Brown Saturday evening at the United Theological Seminary at Dayton.

The Parker Brigner Family Reunion was held Sunday at the Deercreek Dam Park. Twenty-eight members and guests were present for the bountiful dinner and a nice time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Truitt of South Solon and Mrs. Agnes Markley were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Truitt.

Mr. Robert Riley of Columbus spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Bernice Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts of near Newport and Mrs. Martha Anderson were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Ann Fulton in Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Montgomery and Marlene of Anderson, Ind. were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan and family.

Rex and Rita Ingman entertained with a surprise party Sunday afternoon honoring their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Ingman for their 35th wedding anniversary. About 60 guests called during the afternoon to extend their congratulations.

Ethel Furniss and Laura Long were Monday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Long in Ashville.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Paul Smith who died unexpectedly while at work last Tuesday afternoon. His funeral was held Friday at the Porter Funeral Home in Mt. Sterling with burial in Pleasant Cemetery. He was the son of Hayes and Katherine Straley Smith and was a 1942 graduate of the Monroe Township High School. He had many friends in this Community.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Furniss and son Harold and Miss Laura Long were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Long in Ashville.

Mrs. Paul Moore entertained with a miscellaneous shower in her home Sunday afternoon honoring Miss Betsy Lake bride elect of Roger Finch. Mrs. Gary Moore and Mrs. Jack Moore were co-hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney Sheets returned home Saturday evening following a months vacation spent in Canada and the northwestern states. They visited many places of interest including Vance National Park in Canada, Yellowstone National Park and the Minnesota State Fair. They traveled over 6,000 miles and had a wonderful time.

Son Of Sam Unfit For Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — In the first of a series of psychiatric examinations, David Berkowitz, accused as the "Son of Sam" killer, has been found unfit to be tried, but one prosecutor says further tests will clear the way for a trial.

In a report unsealed Tuesday, court-appointed psychiatrists said the 24-year-old former postal employee was suffering from paranoia, delusions of persecution or grandeur. His chances of recovery were described as "guarded," meaning they do not know whether his mental condition will ever improve.

But Brooklyn Dist. Atty. Eugene Gold asked for and received the right to have psychiatrists of his choosing examine Berkowitz. He predicted that the suspect eventually will be judged competent and will stand trial for the murder of six persons and the attempted murder of seven more during a year-long shooting spree in New York City.

Justice Gerald Held of State Supreme Court, sitting in Brooklyn and presiding over the proceedings, gave the state until Oct. 4 to present any data that might open the way to a trial.

Dr. Daniel W. Schwartz, chief of forensic psychiatry at Kings County Hospital where Berkowitz is being held in a mental ward cell, and his colleague Dr. Richard L. Weidenbacher, found the suspect "in-capacitated."

"... As a result of mental disease or defect," they wrote in summing up eight typewritten pages, Berkowitz "lacks capacity to understand the proceedings against him or to assist in his own defense." This precisely meets the state's criteria for mental incompetence.

Legal experts say a final court ruling of incompetence would mean that the suspect would be confined to a state facility for the criminally insane for an indefinite period. If his mental state improved, he could be brought to trial.

Miss Boyer-Mr. Sollars Repeat Wedding Vows

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN LEE SOLLARS

Miss Barbara Jean Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boyer, 650 E. Ohio St., became the bride of Mr. Kevin Lee Sollars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sollars, Mt. Sterling, in a 2:30 p.m., August 6 wedding.

The Rev. Marion Nansel performed the double ring ceremony before the altar of the Church of the Brethren. The altar was decorated with vases of white gladiolus, white carnations and mahogany leaves.

A program of organ selections was presented by Mrs. Francis Cupp and Mr. Ray Berry.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. She chose a formal length gown of white satin. The gown featured long cuffed sleeves and a ruffled neckline. The pleated back extended into a chapel length train. She wore a finger tip veil of bridal illusion attached to a lace covered pill box cap. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow daisy pom poms, white carnations, and mint green baby's breath, caught by lace love knot streamers.

Mrs. Sandy Graves, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Fullen Jr., sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Nansel.

Mr. Raymond Nance, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Mr. David Boyer, brother of the bride, Mr. Robert Fullen Jr., Mr. Dwayne Sollars, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Thurman Mounts.

The reception was held following the ceremony in the church basement. The three tier wedding cake was accented with yellow and flanked by candles. The cake was topped with the traditional bride and groom. Floral arrangements of yellow daisies, white carnations and baby's breath completed the decorations.

Hostesses were Mrs. Thurman Mounts, Mrs. Willis Bennett, and Mrs. Carl Sollars.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Circleville High School and is presently enrolled at the Lancaster branch of Ohio University. She is employed by Diamond Electronics, Lancaster.

The bridegroom is a 1974 graduate of Westfall High School and is presently employed by Mid West Fabricating, Amanda.

The couple will reside at 1366 Sheridan Drive, Apt. 26, Lancaster.

Roundtown Roamers Hold Weekend Campout

The Roundtown Roamers camping club met at the Roundtown Acres over the weekend. Nineteen families attended. Guests included Ms. Carol Craft, Ms. Mildred Durbin, and "Hanna," a young lady from Denmark who is living with the Bob Lands Family as an exchange student for a year.

President Russell Archer welcomed the Haskel Lear family as new members of the club. He also thanked Mrs. Judy Ramey for filling in for him as president during his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ramey thanked the club for their cards, gifts, and remembrances during their Golden wedding anniversary. Also, a thank-you note was received from Mrs. Donald Gatwood for the cards, visits, and flowers which she received during her recent hospitalization in Columbus.

Further improvements were made at the camping lot. Supplies were donated by Mr. Orla Hockman and equipment was donated by Mr. Wilber Paxton.

The club will make and sell wash stands at the fall campout at Croton, Ohio. It will be held September 23-25. Mr. Wes Edstrom also has the wiener forks which have been ordered.

Mr. Richard Krick was named chairman of the nominating committee. Other members are James Fosnough, Ralph DeLong, Lowell Swebston, and President Archer. The election of officers will be held at the October meeting.

Due to the conflict of scheduling, the September and October meetings have been changed to September 16-18 and October 15-17. Other campouts will include the Bob Evans Old Fashioned Days and the Swiss Cheese Festival.

The Christmas Party will be held December 10 at the Wardell's Party Home. A buffet-style dinner will be served.

Miss Boyer-Mr. Sollars Repeat Wedding Vows

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN LEE SOLLARS

Miss Barbara Jean Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boyer, 650 E. Ohio St., became the bride of Mr. Kevin Lee Sollars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sollars, Mt. Sterling, in a 2:30 p.m., August 6 wedding.

The Rev. Marion Nansel performed the double ring ceremony before the altar of the Church of the Brethren.

The altar was decorated with vases of white gladiolus, white carnations and mahogany leaves.

A program of organ selections was presented by Mrs. Francis Cupp and Mr. Ray Berry.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. She chose a formal length gown of white satin. The gown featured long cuffed sleeves and a ruffled neckline. The pleated back extended into a chapel length train. She wore a finger tip veil of bridal illusion attached to a lace covered pill box cap. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow daisy pom poms, white carnations, and mint green baby's breath, caught by lace love knot streamers.

Mrs. Sandy Graves, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Fullen Jr., sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Nansel.

Mr. Raymond Nance, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Mr. David Boyer, brother of the bride, Mr. Robert Fullen Jr., Mr. Dwayne Sollars, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Thurman Mounts.

The reception was held following the ceremony in the church basement. The three tier wedding cake was accented with yellow and flanked by candles. The cake was topped with the traditional bride and groom. Floral arrangements of yellow daisies, white carnations and baby's breath completed the decorations.

Hostesses were Mrs. Thurman Mounts, Mrs. Willis Bennett, and Mrs. Carl Sollars.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Circleville High School and is presently enrolled at the Lancaster branch of Ohio University. She is employed by Diamond Electronics, Lancaster.

The bridegroom is a 1974 graduate of Westfall High School and is presently employed by Mid West Fabricating, Amanda.

The couple will reside at 1366 Sheridan Drive, Apt. 26, Lancaster.

Ohio Has 16 Toll Free 'Hot Lines'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Got a complaint about tainted meat? A question about a utility bill? Maybe you've got a problem with a state income tax return or a youngster who can't decide on a career.

Perhaps it's a nice weekend, and you'd like to know what's going on in Ohio.

Or maybe you'd like to blow the whistle on a public official you believe is abusing his office for private gain.

These are just some of the services available to Ohioans on toll free telephone "hot lines" which now number 16. Soon there will be a 17th — for women to call to get information about laws and programs affecting their lives.

Clifford Kimber, chief of communications in the administrative services department, said the lines cost taxpayers upwards of $190,000 a year. Some are paid all or in part by the federal government.

The Associated Press called them all, and was told what services were available.

Consumers rank high on the list of services which are as follows:

Agriculture Department (1800-282-1955): Complaints about meat, dairy and other food products, over-the-counter drugs; inspectors follow local complaints up where possible.

Attorney General, Consumer Frauds (1-800-282-0515): Complaints about all types of consumer transactions, can lead to prosecutions and in some instances recovery of funds.

Energy Resources and Development Agency (1-800-282-9234): answers to questions about home insulation and energy conservation tips; literature sent out.

Environmental Protection Agency (1-800-282-0270): Will answer "any questions Ohioans have about the environment," complaints against polluters. Note: A second, unlisted number is for local officials' use, environmental emergencies.

Health Department (1-800-282-0383): Black lung benefits, states of claims and eligibility questions. Note: the department has a second, unlisted line for public officials' use on infectious diseases.

Insurance (1-800-282-7623): "Our consumer department," answers questions about insurance policies and other general information. "We don't rate companies."

Public Utilities Commission (1-800-282-0198): Information about hearings on rate hike requests; utility bill payment programs, energy conservation tips.

Taxation (1-800-282-1780): Answers questions about state income tax returns, withholding information for employers; operates year around.

Welfare Department, Food Stamps (1-800-282-1190): Questions about food stamp programs; most of the calls deal with eligibility.

Bureau of Employment Services, vocation and technical education (1-800-282-0377): Guidance of students to schools in their area, information about student financial aid, general information. Note: BES has a second, unlisted line for use of local career planners).

Economic and Community Development (1-800-282-0250): things to do in Ohio, a recorded message. This week: "Be up to your ears in fun at the Millersport Corn Festival," also boat races on the Ohio River, air show in Cleveland, among others.

State Auditor (1-800-282-0370): Mostly for school and other local officials but also complaints from the general public. One citizen turned in a report on private use of county equipment, led to finding for recovery. "We encourage everyone to call."

Legislature (1-800-282-0253): Information on the status of bills.

Say Speed Law Saves Gasoline

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter called today for strict enforcement of the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit, saying fuel savings would be "enormous, I think maybe eight to nine million gallons a day."

Carter also said introduction of that national limit is saving eight to nine thousand lives annually.

The President plugged for speed enforcement at an Oval Office meeting timed to the approach of the traffic-producing Labor Day weekend. Joining him were Transportation Secretary Brock Adams and retired Gen. Benjamin Davis, a department official.

Carter said he wanted periodic reports on average highway speeds in the 50 states so he can congratulate governors where the national limit is being enforced and urge those whose states are lagging to "reinforce their efforts."

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. She chose a formal length gown of white satin. The gown featured long cuffed sleeves and a ruffled neckline. The pleated back extended into a chapel length train. She wore a finger tip veil of bridal illusion attached to a lace covered pill box cap. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow daisy pom pom mums, white carnations, and mint green baby's breath, caught by lace love knot streamers.

Mrs. Sandy Graves, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Fullen Jr., sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Nansel.

Mr. Raymond Nance, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Mr. David Boyer, brother of the bride, Mr. Robert Fullen Jr., Mr. Dwayne Sollars, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Thurman Mounts.

The reception was held following the ceremony in the church basement. The three tier wedding cake was accented with yellow and flanked by candles. The cake was topped with the traditional bride and groom. Floral arrangements of yellow daisies, white carnations and baby's breath completed the decorations.

Hostesses were Mrs. Thurman Mounts, Mrs. Willis Bennett, and Mrs. Carl Sollars.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Circleville High School and is presently enrolled at the Lancaster branch of Ohio University. She is employed by Diamond Electronics, Lancaster.

The bridegroom is a 1974 graduate of Westfall High School and is presently employed by Mid West Fabricating, Amanda.

The couple will reside at 1366 Sheridan Drive, Apt. 26, Lancaster.

Roundtown Roamers Hold Weekend Campout

The Roundtown Roamers camping club met at the Roundtown Acres over the weekend. Nineteen families attended. Guests included Ms. Carol Craft, Ms. Mildred Durbin, and "Hanna," a young lady from Denmark who is living with the Bob Lands Family as an exchange student for a year.

President Russell Archer welcomed the Haskel Lear family as new members of the club. He also thanked Mrs. Judy Ramey for filling in for him as president during his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ramey thanked the club for their cards, gifts, and remembrances during their Golden wedding anniversary. Also, a thank-you note was received from Mrs. Donald Gatwood for the cards, visits, and flowers which she received during her recent hospitalization in Columbus.

Further improvements were made at the camping lot. Supplies were donated by Mr. Orla Hockman and equipment was donated by Mr. Wilber Paxton.

The club will make and sell wash stands at the fall campout at Croton, Ohio. It will be held September 23-25. Mr. Wes Edstrom also has the wiener forks which have been ordered.

Mr. Richard Krick was named chairman of the nominating committee. Other members are James Fosnough, Ralph DeLong, Lowell Swebston, and President Archer. The election of officers will be held at the October meeting.

Due to the conflict of scheduling, the September and October meetings have been changed to September 16-18 and October 15-17. Other campouts will include the Bob Evans Old Fashioned Days and the Swiss Cheese Festival.

The Christmas Party will be held December 10 at the Wardell's Party Home. A buffet-style dinner will be served.

Parker Descendants Hold 13th Reunion

The descendants and family members of Isaac M. and Mary Ann (Kennard) Parker met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil L. Parker, Thompson Road, Laurelville for their 13th annual reunion on August 21.

William Bonner gave the table blessing.

Mrs. Donald Parker, Sr. conducted the short business meeting.

Miss Rhenda K. Bonner of Frankfort, Kentucky traveled the greatest distance to attend and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Parker of Urbana, Ohio have been married the longest — nearly 60 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Junk, Mt. Sterling, Ohio will have the 1978 reunion.

Those in attendance from Kentucky, were: Mr. and Mrs. William Bonner, Vanceburg, Miss Rhenda Bonner, Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lashbrooke and grandson, Brian Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McDonald from Tollesboro.

From Ohio: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parker, Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Balsizer and family, Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Parker, Urbana, Mr. and

Mrs. Ed Reeves and family, Good Hope, Mrs. Bessie Reeves, Mrs. Sarah Haines, Mr. Owen Reeves, Washington C. H., Mrs. Jessie Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Junk, Mr. and Mrs. William Alkire and sons, Mt. Miss Boyer-Mr. Sollars Repeat Wedding Vows

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN LEE SOLLARS

Miss Barbara Jean Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boyer, 650 E. Ohio St., became the bride of Mr. Kevin Lee Sollars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sollars, Mt. Sterling, in a 2:30 p.m., August 6 wedding.

The Rev. Marion Nansel performed the double ring ceremony before the altar of the Church of the Brethren. The altar was decorated with vases of white gladiolus, white carnations and mahogany leaves.

A program of organ selections was presented by Mrs. Francis Cupp and Mr. Ray Berry.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and father. She chose a formal length gown of white satin. The gown featured long cuffed sleeves and a ruffled neckline. Ohio Has 16 Toll Free 'Hot Lines'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Got a complaint about tainted meat? A question about a utility bill? Maybe you've got a problem with a state income tax return or a youngster who can't decide on a career.

Perhaps it's a nice weekend, and you'd like to know what's going on in Ohio.

Or maybe you'd like to blow the whistle on a public official you believe is abusing his office for private gain.

These are just some of the services available to Ohioans on toll free telephone "hot lines" which now number 16. Soon there will be a 17th — for women to call to get information about laws and programs affecting their lives.

Clifford Kimber, chief of communications in the administrative services department, said the lines cost taxpayers upwards of $190,000 a year. Some are paid all or in part by the federal government.

The Associated Press called them all, and was told what services were available.

Consumers rank high on the list of services which are as follows:

Agriculture Department (1-800-282-1955): Complaints about meat, dairy and other food products, over-the-counter drugs; inspectors follow local complaints up where possible.

Attorney General, Consumer Frauds (1-800-282-0515): Complaints about all types of consumer transactions, can lead to prosecutions and in some instances recovery of funds.

Energy Resources and Development Agency (1-800-282-9234): answers to questions about home insulation and energy conservation tips; literature sent out.

Environmental Protection Agency (1-800-282-0270): Will answer "any questions Ohioans have about the environment," complaints against polluters. Note: A second, unlisted number is for local officials' use, environmental emergencies.

Health Department (1-800-282-0383): Black lung benefits, states of claims and eligibility questions. Note: the department has a second, unlisted line for public officials' use on infectious diseases.

Insurance (1-800-282-7623): "Our consumer department," answers questions about insurance policies and other general information. "We don't rate companies."

Public Utilities Commission (1-800-282-0198): Information about hearings on rate hike requests; utility bill payment programs, energy conservation tips.

Taxation (1-800-282-1780): Answers questions about state income tax returns, withholding information for employers; operates year around.

Welfare Department, Food Stamps (1-800-282-1190): Questions about food stamp programs; most of the calls deal with eligibility.

Bureau of Employment Services, vocation and technical education (1-800-282-0377): Guidance of students to schools in their area, information about student financial aid, general information. Note: BES has a second, unlisted line for use of local career planners).

Economic and Community Development (1-800-282-0250): things to do in Ohio, a recorded message. This week: "Be up to your ears in fun at the Millersport Corn Festival," also boat races on the Ohio River, air show in Cleveland, among others.

State Auditor (1-800-282-0370): Mostly for school and other local officials but also complaints from the general public. One citizen turned in a report on private use of county equipment, led to finding for recovery. "We encourage everyone to call."

Legislature (1-800-282-0253): Information on the status of bills.

Say Speed Law Saves Gasoline

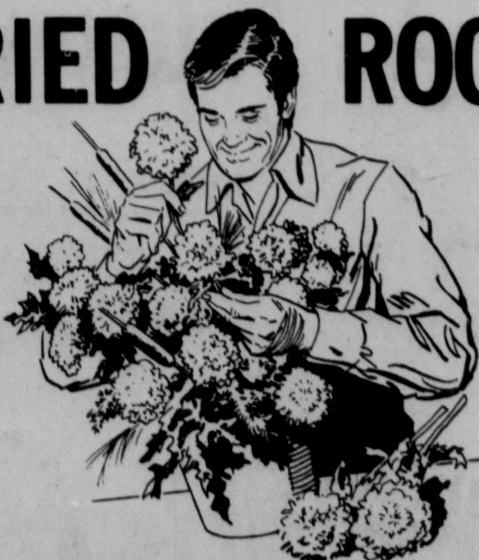

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter called today for strict enforcement of the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit, saying fuel savings would be "enormous, I think maybe eight to nine million gallons a day."

Carter also said introduction of that national limit is saving eight to nine thousand lives annually.

The President plugged for speed enforcement at an Oval Office meeting timed to the approach of the traffic-producing Labor Day weekend. Joining him were Transportation Secretary Brock Adams and retired Gen. Benjamin Davis, a department official.

Carter said he wanted periodic reports on average highway speeds in the 50 states so he can congratulate governors where the national limit is being enforced and urge those whose states are lagging to "reinforce their efforts."

Say Speed Law Saves Gasoline

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter called today for strict enforcement of the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit, saying fuel savings would be "enormous, I think maybe eight to nine million gallons a day."

Carter also said introduction of that national limit is saving eight to nine thousand lives annually.

The President plugged for speed enforcement at an Oval Office meeting timed to the approach of the traffic-producing Labor Day weekend. Joining him were Transportation Secretary Brock Adams and retired Gen. Benjamin Davis, a department official.

Carter said he wanted periodic reports on average highway speeds in the 50 states so he can congratulate governors where the national limit is being enforced and urge those whose states are lagging to "reinforce their efforts."

Jack Arledge visited Mr. and Mrs. James Floyd at Massieville Sunday.

The Trinity Lutheran Womens Circle met Sunday evening in the social room of the church. Lucille Justus conducted the business session. Money was collected for the bakeless bake sale from the eight members present. Mrs. Esther Spangler presented the topic, "Dealing with personal fears."

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crawford of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Estell Salyers and daughter Jackie and Keith Hoop, daughter Keitha Kay, son Jeremay Jason were Saturday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Conrad.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Floyd and family were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Allison and Donna of Circleville.

Mrs. Ora Marshall and Mrs. Bessie Rife visited Mrs. Alice Biggs Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crawford and Mrs. Leona Rife were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Conrad.

Friday evening visitors of Mrs. Bessie Rife was Mr. and Mrs. Pete Noble and Mrs. Helen Davis of Circleville and Mrs. Thea Hawks of Chillicothe and Mrs. Ora Marshall.

THE BIGGEST ONE — Heidi Butterbaugh, 9, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Butterbaugh, 9398 S. R. 56 East, holds the largest cucumber found in the family's garden. It measures 13 inches long. The ones in the basket aren't that much smaller, as they are about 10 inches long. The Butterbaughs' two gardens have several large vegetables, but because of the beetle problem, the crop wasn't as good this year as in the past.

McComb School District To Close Oct. 12

McCOMB, Ohio (AP) — The McComb school district, northwest of Findlay, has been certified to close Oct. 12 for the rest of the year because of a shortage of funds.

Voters, who have defeated three previous levies, will be asked to approve a fourth before the closing date. School board members said Tuesday they did not know how much the levy would be for. There are nearly 1,000 students in the Hancock County district.

Under Ohio law, schools may not operate with a deficit.

Shetland Pony Gets Feet Trimmed; Will Recover

DURHAM, N.H. (AP) — King, a 10-year-old Shetland pony confined for four years in a nailed-shut stall piled high with manure, will recover completely now that almost a foot-and-a-half of deformed hoof has been removed, veterinarians said today.

Dr. Walter Hilton, who is directing King's treatment, said after evaluating laboratory tests and X rays that "the film showed no growth abnormalities in King's legs, nor any signs of underlying disease."

"King's about the most tenacious pony I've ever seen," Hilton said of the pony that has gained national attention. "He's got an unbelievable will to live and that's probably why he is still around."

Earlier this week, Hilton, and blacksmith Bill McPhee, undertook a three-hour intricate procedure in which they sliced, chipped, and filed away pounds of deformed bone and hoof which had accumulated during the pony's imprisonment.

About three weeks ago, officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals discovered King trapped in the fly-and maggot-infested stall, standing atop a four-foot-high pile of manure in a garage in Plaistow.

The Palamino-colored pony was suffering from the most severe case of the deformity called laminitis the veterinarians said they had ever seen. Its hooves had grown about 18 inches beyond their normal length and they curved toward his knees like the runners on a rocking horse.

In Tuesday's operation, at the University of New Hampshire, the grotesquely curved hooves were carefully whittled back to almost their normal size.

But even as King stepped gingerly on normal hooves for the first time in years, doctors were saying that only X rays would give a clear picture of whether the pony was walking to a new life, or to eventual destruction because of possible hidden bone damage.

Today's optimistic prognosis ruled out the somber alternative.

"One of our biggest problems now," said Hilton, "is making sure they don't kill him with love."

A hand-printed sign in King's stall says "Please leave all apples, carrots and sugar cubes outside."

Since his rescue the 3½-foot-tall pony has become an international celebrity. Hundreds of letters, get-well cards and telephone calls stream in every day. Many of the cards and letters contain money to pay for King's treatment. Others promise a "friendly and caring" home.

King's former owner, Barbara Reed of Plaistow, a 58-year-old widow, is scheduled to appear in court Sept. 13, to face cruelty charges.

Plaistow police said they are maintaining a watch on the woman's home because of threats and the fear someone would seek revenge on the animal's behalf.

"Emotions are running high all over the place," said SPCA investigator Peter Saunders. "People are vehement about this type of cruelty."

Cincinnati Bridge Open Labor Day

CINCINNATI (AP) — Traffic officials plan a Labor Day weekend respite from construction on the Brent Spence Bridge to accommodate the expected heavy traffic.

All lanes on the bridge will be open by noon Thursday and construction barriers will remain down for five days.

The barriers will be back in place by next Tuesday to allow repairs to be completed on the bridge's two decks.

Repairs and waterproofing, which began nearly two months ago, are expected to be finished by Oct. 1, according to Robert A. Walsburger, district engineer for the Kentucky Bureau of Highways.

Butter Production Ahead Of A Year Ago

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's production of butter has declined seasonally from last spring but is still running well ahead of a year ago, according to the Agriculture Department.

Butter output in July was estimated at 84.2 million pounds, down 11 per cent from 95 million in June. However, production was 18 per cent above the 71.5 million pounds in July 1976, officials said Wednesday.

Total cheese production, at 283 million pounds, declined 10 per cent from June's 314 million pounds. But July output was down 5 per cent from more than 296 million pounds of cheese produced a years earlier, they said.

Summit County Ordered In Increase Welfare

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — To meet standards of "health and decency" Summit County commissioners have been ordered to increase payments to 1,500 general relief recipients.

The county commissioners responded by saying such an increase in payments will result in a financial "crisis" for the city.

The 9th District Court of Appeals in Akron said the current $44 per month stipend paid to the poor is totally inadequate and told the county it must set a suitable amount and then come up with the money to pay it.

"The decision is a disaster," Commissioner Mark Ravenscraft said. "It's humane, but it means that there will have to be a 10 to 15 per cent rollback in such discretionary items as salaries and purchases."

"It also means the commissioners must come up with a sizable amount of tax support to meet these and other costs," he said.

Lawyers for the Summit County Legal Aid Society filed the complaint with the appellate court directly, without going through a lower court. The attorneys said the order sets a statewide precedent that could lead to funding changes elsewhere if it stands.

The county prosecutor's office says it will appeal the ruling to the Ohio Supreme Court.

At issue is a state law which requires county officials to allocate an amount sufficient "to maintain health and decency" for general welfare recipients. The law doesn't say how the amount is to be set and neither did the appeals court in its ruling.

A spokesman for the prosecutor's office said the commissioners may have to hold hearings to make the determination. The legal aid society recommended a professional be hired to determine the proper payment level.

Summit County has had welfare problems before. Last year the county said it had run out of funds and could not continue payments.

In an effort to prevent a recurrence, Ohio's attorney general filed suit early this year asking that Summit County be required to set aside an amount sufficient to meet welfare needs. A ruling on that request is pending.

Throbbing Vein Is Sign Of Presidential Anger

WASHINGTON (AP) — If a vein in President Carter's neck has been throbbing lately, reporters haven't noticed it.

The state of the President's vein becomes a matter of potential interest because, according to his mother, "Miss Lillian" Carter, a throbbing neck vein is a dead giveaway that the chief executive is angry.

But why, you might ask, would Carter be angry?

For starters, consider the mixed notices that have accompanied disclosures of the former banking practices of Bert Lance, the President's old friend, lender and budget director. Although Carter now stands squarely behind Lance, the White House acknowledges that incoming mail is critical of the hulking Georgia moneyman by a two-to-one margin.

Such problems are not calculated to contribute to presidential serenity.

Even so, no throbbing vein was evident last week when Carter, holding his 14th formal news conference, was besieged with Lance questions, many of them as pointed as any he has faced.

But three days later, at a private, informal question session with a group of visiting editors and broadcast news directors, Carter gave at least a hint that the persistent questions about Lance were getting under his skin.

Carter told his visitors, for example, that all their questions had been substantive and important, adding:

"Quite often, in the national press conferences here, the major emphasis, almost exclusive interest, is on a transient question."

The President did not cite an example but there was at least a suspicion in some quarters that he had the Lance affair in mind. The suspicion was not lessened by the fact that the visitors asked not a single question about Bert Lance.

But who can be sure?

The self-contained Carter is hard to read. With reference to the Lance controversy, we have the testimony of Carter's press secretary, Jody Powell, that there are no outward manifestations of presidential emotion.

"He has not appeared to be noticeably concerned or disturbed. I've seen no signs of exasperation, paranoia or stomach upset."

AT BOOKS IN THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY

This week in the Children's Room you'll find a few new books and lots of new records.

Do you sometimes feel clumsy and awkward? You'll feel graceful after you meet Mercer Mayer's hippopotamus in "Oops." This wordless picture book shows poor Ms. Hippo literally bumping into disaster everywhere she goes — even in a china shop! (E)

A timely acquisition with fall just around the corner is "The Mice Came In Early This Year" by Eleanor J. Lapp. Highlighted by simple but effective watercolor illustrations, this story describes preparations made for autumn by a boy and his grandparents as well as their animal friends. Large print. (E)

"The Elephant and His Secret" is based on a fable by Chilean poet and Nobel Prize winner Gabriela Mistral. Told in Spanish and English, this tale of the elephant's creation and of the second deluge is suitable for all ages. "The well-designed title page, the uncrowded bilingual text, and nine doublespread woodcuts in effective black, white, orange, and purple are a graphic delight." (Hornbook) (468)

Our new records were all selected with reading in mind. Most of them are readings of books already popular in the Children's Room, and youngsters

Argentina Enters World Soybean Market

WASHINGTON (AP) — Argentina is rapidly joining Brazil as a significant American competitor on the world soybean market.

The 1977 Argentine soybean crop is now forecast at a record of 1.4 million metric tons, the Agriculture Department said Wednesday. Last year's output was 695,000 tons.

Brazil, which has been expanding soybean production rapidly in recent years, is expected to produce 12 million tons in 1977, up 11 per cent from 1976, the department's Foreign Agricultural Service said.

By comparison, the U.S. soybean harvest this year is now estimated at about 43.6 million tons (1.6 billion bushels), up from 34.5 million tons (1.27 billion bushels) last year.

Coalition Gets Support

CLEVELAND (AP) — The May 4th Coalition has carried its protest against the construction of a gymnasium annex at Kent State University all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court and, meanwhile, picked up some additional support at home.

The coalition asked Supreme Court Justice Stewart Potter on Wednesday to continue a ban on the construction, planned near the site of the 1970 National Guard shootings which killed four students and wounded nine more during a protest against the Vietnam war.

Back in Cleveland, religious and civic groups have called on the Kent State trustees to relocate the annex.

The Rev. Donald G. Jacobs, executive director of the Greater Cleveland Interchurch Council, linked the KSU shootings to those 10 days later at Jackson State University in Jackson, Miss., where two students were killed by state highway police during a protest against racism.

The groups Jacobs represents and the Coalition are asking that the shooting site be preserved intact as a national landmark.

The Coalition asked Stewart to disregard the court's summer recess and hold a formal hearing on the request "due to the gravity of the situation...the extremely tense atmosphere...and the continuing insensitivity of the university board of trustees."

Normally such petitions are handled without formal court proceedings. A court ban against the construction remains in effect until Tuesday and the Coalition is asking that the order be extended.

If Stewart rejects the petition, only the full court could overrule him and it does not meet again until mid-September.

KSU's student government filed suit in the Ohio Supreme Court on Tuesday asking it to halt all construction activity near the scene.

Fast-Food Chicken Business Is Looking Better Than Ever

CINCINNATI (AP) — The fast-food chicken business is looking better than ever for the chairman of Famous Recipe Inc.

In fact, Harold K. Omer is more enthusiastic about his current project than he was about his former job as an electrical engineer who once directed aerospace research programs for Westinghouse.

"It's coming into its own just like the aerospace industry did in the late '50s and early '60s," Omer said. "Only in this business, you see the results of your work much faster. In aerospace, it took five years to develop an airplane."

Omer and his brother-in-law, A. Lee Cummings, think Famous Recipe will take only three years to double its worldwide sales to $80 million from this year's $40 million.

That would likely boost the Cincinnati-based company past Church's of Dallas, Tex., into the No. 2 spot behind Kentucky Fried Chicken, the leader with $1.6 billion in sales, Omer predicted.

Famous Recipe sales are up about 18 per cent this year, according to Omer who predicted, "frankly, we think we can do as well as 25 per cent a year for the next three years."

The number of outlets has also grown. Famous Recipe currently has 161 locations, compared to 150 a year ago.

"We will add as many as 45 units in the first nine months of 1978 (which begins Oct. 1 for Famous Recipe)," Cummings said, "and as many as 25 more in the Caribbean."

It costs at least $30,000 to set up a Famous Recipe franchise under a build-and-lease deal, Cummings said. If the franchiser buys his land and develops a location on his own, it can go as high as $275,000.

Cummings goes back a ways in the fast-food chicken business. A nephew and long-time partner of Col. Harlan Sanders, Cummings said he sold more than 875 Kentucky Fried Chicken franchises after going to work in the colonel's Corbin, Ky., restaurant in 1955.

Four years after Sanders sold the business in 1962, Cummings and Omer opened their first Famous Recipe restaurant in Lima, Ohio.

Omer had been manager of aerospace electrical systems at the Westinghouse plant in Lima.

"I think engineering and this are a real good combination," Omer explained. "There really isn't that much difference between this and aerospace. Both have a lot of technical problems."

Omer once designed a gasfired oven that improved Famous Recipe's fuel-efficiency in the kitchen. He also currently devotes much of his attention to marketing studies.

Dear Abby:

Communication Lines Seriously Jammed

DEAR ABBY: I've been married for 18 years, and I'm ashamed to have my wife meet my business associates or customers.

She has her hair cut very short—just like a man, and she never wears any makeup. She hasn't worn a dress in two years. She always wears a pantsuit.

When I ask her to try to look more feminine and let her hair grow, she gets angry and asks me why I married her. She had pretty long hair, and she dressed like a girl. She says it's easier to wear her hair short, and she doesn't care what anybody thinks. Well I care. She can well afford to go to the beauty parlor once a week, but she says it's too much trouble. If it weren't for the two kids, I'd leave her now. But I'll stay a few more years until the kids go off to college. That is, unless you can come up with some ideas to get her to change.

STUCK IN FLORIDA
DEAR STUCK: Your marriage is suffering from a serious communication gap. It's more than her mannish haircut and suits. She doesn't give a hoot what you think. Meanwhile, you are secretly plotting to leave her.

Level with her about your feelings, and please consider counseling if you want your marriage to survive.

DEAR ABBY: I'm sure we've all been bored by people who are in the habit of telling long, drawn-out stories that are usually pointless and seems endless.

May I share a wonderful suggestion given to me by a very wise friend?

To test the interest of your audience, if someone interrupts you in the middle of a story and no one says, "...and then what happened," shut up!

I've tried it many times over the years, and I must admit, I have had to shut up a lot.

OLDER AND WISER
DEAR WISER: Thanks for a valuable suggestion. And in that connection, if you hear yourself saying, "...so, to make a long story short," it's too late already.

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and no raving beauty, but I am not ugly, either. I was over at my girlfriend's house one night and she called up a boy I like. (I'll call him "D"). She asked him what he thought of me, and he didn't come right out and say he LIKED me, but he didn't say he HATED me, either. (I was listening in on the other phone.) I was going to ask "D" to our club dance, but now I'm not sure. He has never asked me out, but whenever we were accidentally thrown together, he acted like he sort of liked me. I am all confused. What should I do?

UNDECIDED
DEAR UNDECIDED: Forget "D" and ask a boy who has asked you out. And if you want to be well-liked by both boys and girls, don't be a party to calling up boys. And NEVER listen in on the other phone. It's dishonest and childish.

Police Chief's Bird Bath Stolen

CARROLL, Iowa (AP) — Many birds were without their usual bathing spots after youngsters swept through the northwest section of town grabbing bird baths, police said.

Police Chief Maury Dion said the youngsters did not seem to care whose bird baths they stole. His was among the missing.

Police, including Dion, were not aware of the thefts until neighbors of a vacant lot reported about 10 bird baths had been dumped there.

"They said if anybody calls for the bird baths, 'we have a bunch of them here,'" Assistant Chief William Heller said.

After arriving with two other officers to investigate, Dion noticed one of the baths looked like his. He went home and discovered it was.

Area Grid Coaches Liked Wednesday's Scrimmages

All four Pickaway County high school football teams were in action Wednesday in their second preseason scrimmages. After the results were studied, all four head coaches in the county reported the same — that they were pleased, on the whole, with the showings made by their respective teams.

Bill Frost and his Braves went against the Golden Eagles from Madison Plains on the Logan Elm field.

"Madison Plains is having their problems, with only 24 players on the squad and most of them are sophomores", stated Frost. "Still, I feel that we improved over our first scrimmage somewhat. Our defense had a real good day and the offense went for over 300 yards. We still made a few fundamental mistakes though. We'll get a good test Saturday night against Bexley."

That scrimmage will take place at 8 p.m. at Logan Elm Stadium.

John Glanton sent the Westfall Mustangs against Amanda-Clearcreek's Aces on Westfall's home turf Wednesday evening.

"We looked better than we have before," said Glanton. They have a good club. I liked our line play, and we really hit well. We're still making a few mental mistakes and we've got a lot of work to do, but we showed some improvement."

The Mustangs are idle this Saturday, and will start the season one week from tomorrow night against Madison Plains. Westfall will be the only team to play at home on opening night.

The Teays Valley Vikings went against the Cowboys from Columbus West at Teays Valley Wednesday.

Head Coach Bill Wood said that after an inconsistent showing at Columbus North on the past Saturday, he was very pleased with the showing the Vikings made.

"I can really see a change in our attitude," stated Wood. "We think that our attitude is our biggest asset, and I think the change we have shown is very visible. We are getting better — the improvement is there. We still have to work on some things before we go to Greenfield, but we were definitely pleased with the scrimmage against West."

The Vikings line up against the Athens Bulldogs this Saturday evening at Athens starting at 7 p.m.

The Circleville Tigers travelled to Gallipolis for their second preseason scrimmage.

In talking about the Tigers' outing, grid boss Larry Cook said, "We set out to be more consistent with our offense, and we also wanted to do some specific things with our defense, and we thought it went very well for us. We wanted to open up the offense and we did. Gallipolis has a good football team. We thought our men looked real good against them."

The Tigers take on the Logan Braves in a reserve scrimmage at 10 a.m. Saturday in Tiger Stadium.

Marshall's 37 Paces Lansdowne Golf League

Steve Marshall shot a 37 in the Upper Lansdowne Wednesday Night Golf League to capture the low gross honors. Chet Iery had a low net of 30 while Ashville Bank took low team net honors.

Gloyd's Sohio is leading the standings with 106 points. Marathon Oil and Second National Bank are tied for second with 76 points. Goodyear is fourth with 75 points, Ashville Bank has 71 points, Alro Auto Parts has 62 points. Nutter Excavating has 66 points, Pickaway Gardens 60½ and Professional Lawn Care 52½.

Elks Bowlers To Meet

The Circleville BPO Elks Lodge 77 bowling league will meet 8 p.m. tonight in the lodge. All Elks interested in bowling are urged to attend.

Baltimore Edges Angels, 4-3

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

There really was no reason for Frank Tanana to be concerned when Baltimore's Doug DeCinces stepped to the plate in the eighth inning of a tie game Wednesday night.

Even though DeCinces had walked twice and been hit by a pitch, he showed only one hit in 18 career at-bats against Tanana.

That number is now 2-for-19. DeCinces cracked a tie-breaking home run to give Baltimore a 4-3 victory over the California Angels and boost the Orioles into a second-place tie with the Boston Red Sox in the American League.

The Orioles and Red Sox, who lost to the Cleveland Indians 4-3, are four games behind the New York Yankees, who edged the Seattle Mariners 5-4. In the AL West, the Kansas City Royals nipped the Texas Rangers 5-4 and increased their lead to 2½ games over idle Chicago. The Minnesota Twins, 4-3 losers to the Oakland A's, are three games out, while Texas trails by 3½.

In the only AL game between non-contenders, the Detroit Tigers downed the Milwaukee Brewers 5-2.

Tanana had beaten the Orioles three times this season, the last two by shutouts, and had a near-invisible 0.62 earned run average against them. This time, though, he failed to hold an early three-run lead.

Indians 4, Red Sox 3

Jim Norris drove in the tie-breaking run with a pinch double in the ninth inning after the Indians erased a 3-0 deficit in the seventh inning. Rico Carty, who drove in the first Cleveland run with a double and scored on Ron Pruitt's game-tying two-run double, singled off loser Bob Stanley. Then Pruitt walked and Norris grounded a double inside third base scoring pinchrunner John Lowenstein.

Yankees 5, Mariners 4

Graig Nettles, the defending AL home run king, surpassed his 1976 total with a pair of solo shots, including the tie-breaking ninth-inning blast that provided the winning run. Along with home run No. 34, Nettles also drove in a run with a single and Chris Chambliss hit a two-run homer while relief

Seaver Pitches 3-Hit Shutout

MONTREAL (AP) — Those who came to watch a vintage pitching performance by Tom Seaver had to be satisfied as they filed out of Olympic Stadium Wednesday night.

Seaver, one of the major leagues' premier right-handers, choked Montreal's offense on just three hits in leading Cincinnati Reds to a 6-0 National League baseball triumph over the Expos.

He struck out six to run his lifetime total to 2,501 and recorded his 16th victory against only five defeats and his third triumph in as many decisions against the Expos this season.

With the victory, Seaver stretched his personal winning streak to eight games, tying Tommy John of Los Angeles Dodgers and Larry Christenson of Philadelphia Phillies for a league high.

"I believe when I pitch I'm in cycles," said Seaver, who is 14-8 lifetime against the Expos. "I'm in a positive cycle right now and I want to keep it going."

"When you get into a negative cycle, you want to get out of it as fast as you can."

A two-run single by Dan Driessen in the first inning and Joe Morgan's solo homer in the third provided Seaver with all of the offense he needed.

The Reds added another run in the fourth and two more in the ninth en route to their seventh win in 12 decisions against Montreal this year.

Seaver was in trouble twice — in the third inning when he gave up a single to Larry Parrish and a walk to losing pitcher Wayne Twitchell — and in the seventh when he surrendered singles to Andre Dawson and Tony Perez.

He got out of trouble in the third when Dave Cash grounded into an inning-ending double play and in the seventh, he got Gary Carter to fly out and fanned Deel Unser and Parrish.

"He works fast and I think that is the key," said Morgan, who said many of Seaver's pitches were unhittable. "A lot of guys throw strikes, but they take a lot of time between pitches."

"As an infielder, you like to stay on your toes. When he works fast that gives you a chance to stay loose and stay ready. As a result, I think you make better plays behind a guy like that."

The ball game goes much faster and I think it's a much better played game."

The Reds could not have played a much better game behind their ace right-hander, who they picked up from New York Mets just prior to the July 15th trading deadline. Seaver could not have done much better either.

"My pitching philosophy hasn't changed," said Seaver. "In my 10 years of pitching, my philosophy is what I want it to be and it won't change."

"I'll pitch as long as I pitch well and am physically able. I love to pitch and it's a creative art to me."

Kollar's Return Welcomed By Bengals

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — After going nine months without hitting anyone, defensive tackle Bill Kollar of the Cincinnati Bengals can't wait to get back into the swing of things.

And the timing couldn't be better for the injury-thinned Bengals.

Kollar, Cincinnati's No. 1 draft choice of 1974, has been out of commission since last season with a left foot injury. Off-season surgery on his left foot failed to mend properly, forcing Kollar to miss the first month of training camp.

His return was a welcome change for the Bengals, who have been hard hit by injuries in recent weeks. Tuesday, Cincinnati lost seven-year starter Ron Carpenter to an indefinite period. His absence probably means the Bengals will open the season with two touted rookies — first round draft picks Eddie Edwards and Wilson Whitley — in their defensive front four.

Kollar, a former Little American from Montana State, will need time to be battle ready.

"I was a little hesitant on it. I didn't want to blow it out again. It's been nine months and I was a little leery. I just wanted to get the feel of it again."

He sustained the injury last Oct. 24 against Houston and hasn't played since Nov. 8, when he made a brief appearance in the Bengals' 20-12 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

"It feels good," said Kollar after his first taste of contact Wednesday. "I had a couple good hits out there. Harder than anything I got in the Rams' game. I planted my left foot and was able to fire off it."

Kollar faces an uphill fight in winning a starting job. After several brilliant outings as a rookie — including a sensational game against the Oakland Raiders — the 6-foot-4, 250-pound Warren, Ohio, native has been relegated to a reserve role.

He appeared to have the inside for a starting spot in 1975, but the Bengals, worried about his lack of bulk, acquired 300-pound veteran Bob Brown to plug the middle. After starting the past two years, Brown was waived to Oakland for $100 last month when he failed to show up at camp.

Squirrel Season Opens Sept. 9

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The squirrel season opens Sept. 9 and the division of wildlife reports that the animal population is larger than last year in some sections of the state.

Wildlife biologists estimate the Ohio squirrel population to be slightly over 2.9 million. That figure includes both gray and fox squirrels.

About one million squirrels were taken during last year's hunting season.

This year's season runs from Sept. 9-Nov. 12 on private lands and from Sept. 9-Dec. 23 on public hunting areas.

Hunting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset. The daily bag limit is four, with possession limit of eight after the first day.

Associate Dean Named For Wright State

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Dr. J. Taylor Sims, professor of marketing, has been named associate dean of Wright State University's College of Business and Administration, the university announced Wednesday.

Prior to joining the Wright State faculty in 1975, Sims was chairman of the Department of Marketing at the University of Texas in Odessa, Tex.

Pawtucket Leads International Baseball League

By The Associated Press

A five-hitter by Jim Wright and a string of three back-to-back doubles helped the Pawtucket Red Sox go 3½ games up on the third-place Tidewater Tides and stay 2½ in front of second-place Charleston in the tight International League baseball pennant race.

Wright shut out the Tides 4-0 Wednesday night for his ninth straight win and in the process gave the Red Sox pennant hopes a big boost with just five games left in the season. The Tides are at Pawtucket again tonight.

Charleston hung onto the Red Sox heels Wednesday with a home run marked 12-1 romp over Richmond. Pinch-hitter Denny Walling hit a grand slam in the Charlie's big fifth inning, and catcher Louie Pujols followed that blast with an inside-the-park homer. J.J. Cannon hit the Charlie's second inside-the-park homer of the night in the seventh with a man on.

Richmond catcher Dale Murphy hit an inside-the-park shot for the Braves' lone run in the ninth. The Charlies and the fifth place Braves meet again tonight in Charleston.

TOOK SECOND PLACE — This group of Circleville Major League All Stars are runner-ups in the Scioto Valley Youth League Tourney. They were tops in the winners bracket, beating five teams to get to the finals. Last week, they played the winners of the losing bracket and were beat twice by the Jackson team to claim second place. The tournament began Aug. 26 with 24 teams

World Series Of Golf Starts

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson, the current ruler of world golf and the man who would replace him, head a select, international field of 20 players arrayed for Friday's start of the $300,000 World Series of Golf.

It is the last time Nicklaus and

Watson are expected to face each other this year, and there is the distinct possibility they could hook up in another dramatic duel, such as the ones that saw Watson win the Masters and British Open.

And it is almost certain that, between them, they will decide Player of the Year honors and the money winning champion in the exclusive event that is designed as a climax to the golf season.

Presently, Watson has the inside track on both. A Nicklaus victory—and he has to be considered the favorite—could change things dramatically.

In addition to the two major titles that stamped him as the most likely successor to Nicklaus' long-time position as the game's top performer, Watson has won three American events this year and collected a leading $298,428. Nicklaus is a three-time winner on the U.S. tour and trails Watson on the money winning list with $273,343.

Should Watson win, he would have both titles clinched.

A Nicklaus victory, however, almost certainly would make him the leading money winner (for the ninth time), would give him a record single-season accumulation and would put him in position to challenge Watson for Player of the Year honors. The biggest prize in golf, $100,000 awaits the winner.

Watson, among others, objects.

"The money should be unofficial," Watson said before a practice round over the 7,130-yard, par 70 South course at the Firestone Country Club.

"The leading money winner has been looked on as the outstanding player of the year. Now, with all this money in one event, you can play in one tournament and beat somebody who's won three or four tournaments. That's not right."

"The World Series is a great event, on a great golf course, with a great format. I like everything about it but the money. It should be unofficial."

It was until last year, when the format was expanded and the purse increased. Nicklaus won that one and clinched both the money title and Player of the Year honors. It marked his seventh victory on this course and pushed to $489,930 the amount he has earned from tournaments on this course.

Other former winners at Firestone in the elite field are Watson, PGA champion Lanny Wadkins, Lee Trevino, South African Gary Player, Ray Floyd and Tom Weiskopf.

Rose Likes DH Rule

MONTREAL (AP) — Cincinnati Reds third baseman Pete Rose has endorsed the designated hitter rule as being more exciting for the fans.

"It adds more offense and anything that adds more offense is better for the fans. I don't want to sound like (club president Bob) Howsam, but you have

Ferrell Wins Ohio Open

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Gene Ferrell's tee shot was in the water. El Collins' drive was safely in the middle of the fairway on their first extra hole Wednesday in the Ohio Open Golf Tournament.

"I really thought I had it won. I had no idea he could make a par," said Collins, the big, affable host pro at Reid Park.

Ferrell did.

"I couldn't believe it," said the 34-year-old left-hander from Bryan.

Ferrell took a one-stroke penalty and dropped behind the lake, 110 yards from the green. His wedge shot was 30 feet short of the hole.

Meanwhile, Collins misclubbed with a nine-iron and was 75 feet from the pin on the fringe. His first putt, for a victory-clinching birdie three, was eight feet short.

Ferrell sank a 30-foot putt to save an unbelievable par. Collins needed his eight-footer to force another extra hole. He missed, inches to the left of the cup.

"I really didn't think I could make four," said Ferrell. "I thought I could make five and halve the hole."

Instead, the club pro at Orchard Hills, was $3,000 richer. The first prize eclipsed his biggest payday in almost three years on the national tour. He won $2,800 in the 1971 Los Angeles Open.

"I'll feel this tomorrow. I'm still numb. My wife, Sherry, will get most of the money," said the father of three, breaking into a big grin.

Ferrell closed with rounds of 69 and 70 to tie Collins at 276, 12 under par for four trips around the Reid Park courses. Collins shot a blistering 65 in the morning, then faded to a 73 in the afternoon heat.

Roth, Hudson Lead PBA

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Mark Roth and Tommy Hudson continue their two-way battle for the lead in the official standings of the Professional Bowlers Association, but for the third straight week the pros have a new champion.

Roth of Staten Island, N.Y., was second to Bill Spigner of Hamden, Conn., Monday in the $60,000 New England Open at Cranston, R.I. The $3,500 Roth picked up raised his year's total to $84,548.

Close behind Roth throughout the summer, Hudson of Akron, Ohio, earned an 11th position check for $1,250 for a year's total of $76,858.

Spigner's title, his first in five years of tour competition, earned him $6,000 and raised him to eighth spot in the standings with $37,161.

The Labor Day weekend ends the PBA's near million dollar Summer Tour, with the $60,000 Sarasota Open. The tournament, with a first prize of $6,000 starts Friday.

U Of C Grid Coach Critical Of Predecessor

CINCINNATI (AP) — University of Cincinnati football coach Ralph Staub says he can document allegations he's made regarding the transfer of four players who have followed their former coach Tony Mason to his new position at the University of Arizona.

Charges first surfaced in December when middle guard Howie Kurnick said he had been contacted by Arizona assistant coach Bob Shaw about the possibility of transferring. Under National Collegiate Athletic Association rules, no member of a school's staff may approach a player about transferring without first obtaining permission.

Staub estimates that there was a span of two months before Arizona officially approached Cincinnati about releasing the players.

"It's obvious this procedure was not followed," Staub said. "It's well documented. I have it all in my files. I feel very strongly their actions aren't above board."

Mason accepted the head coaching job at Arizona following the conclusion of last season and has since denied allegations that he tampered with the players in any way.

Wide receiver Reggie Ware, tailback John Ziegler, defensive tackle Bob Cobb and defensive back Dave Liggins have all announced their intentions to follow Mason to Arizona.

Mason has claimed that Staub is being "vindictive toward the players" who are not being allowed to receive aid of any kind during their first year on the Tucson campus since they do not have releases.

"I'm not going to get in a running battle with him," Staub said.

Staub's initial policy has been not to allow any releases anywhere because of a desire to stabilize the football program at the school.

The UC head coach said he was concerned if he began awarding releases soon after his arrival that a mass exodus of players would take place.

"We had a program to get under way and we had to do something to bring people together," Staub said.

George Halas was the head coach of the Chicago Bears for 40 years.

The 1976 Penn State Football Press Guide was judged best in the country by the College Sports Information Directors.

Ken Reitz, in his second go-round with the St. Louis Cardinals, was the National League Player of the Month for May 1977.

TOOK SECOND PLACE — This group of Circleville Major League All Stars are runner-ups in the Scioto Valley Youth League Tourney. They were tops in the winners bracket, beating five teams to get to the finals. Last week, they played the winners of the losing bracket and were beat twice by the Jackson team to claim second place. The tournament began Aug. 26 with 24 teams

World Series Of Golf Starts

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Tom Watson, the current ruler of world golf and the man who would replace him, head a select, international field of 20 players arrayed for Friday's start of the $300,000 World Series of Golf.

It is the last time Nicklaus and

Watson are expected to face each other this year, and there is the distinct possibility they could hook up in another dramatic duel, such as the ones that saw Watson win the Masters and British Open.

And it is almost certain that, between them, they will decide Player of the Year honors and the money winning champion in the exclusive event that is designed as a climax to the golf season.

Presently, Watson has the inside track on both. A Nicklaus victory—and he has to be considered the favorite—could change things dramatically.

In addition to the two major titles that stamped him as the most likely successor to Nicklaus' long-time position as the game's top performer, Watson has won three American events this year and collected a leading $298,428. Nicklaus is a three-time winner on the U.S. tour and trails Watson on the money winning list with $273,343.

Should Watson win, he would have both titles clinched.

A Nicklaus victory, however, almost certainly would make him the leading money winner (for the ninth time), would give him a record single-season accumulation and would put him in position to challenge Watson for Player of the Year honors. The biggest prize in golf, $100,000 awaits the winner.

Watson, among others, objects.

"The money should be unofficial," Watson said before a practice round over the 7,130-yard, par 70 South course at the Firestone Country Club.

"The leading money winner has been looked on as the outstanding player of the year. Now, with all this money in one event, you can play in one tournament and beat somebody who's won three or four tournaments. That's not right."

"The World Series is a great event, on a great golf course, with a great format. I like everything about it but the money. It should be unofficial."

It was until last year, when the format was expanded and the purse increased. Nicklaus won that one and clinched both the money title and Player of the Year honors. It marked his seventh victory on this course and pushed to $489,930 the amount he has earned from tournaments on this course.

Other former winners at Firestone in the elite field are Watson, PGA champion Lanny Wadkins, Lee Trevino, South African Gary Player, Ray Floyd and Tom Weiskopf.

Rose Likes DH Rule

MONTREAL (AP) — Cincinnati Reds third baseman Pete Rose has endorsed the designated hitter rule as being more exciting for the fans.

Ferrell Wins Ohio Open

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Gene Ferrell's tee shot was in the water. El Collins' drive was safely in the middle of the fairway on their first extra hole Wednesday in the Ohio Open Golf Tournament.

"I really thought I had it won. I had no idea he could make a par," said Collins, the big, affable host pro at Reid Park.

Ferrell did. "I couldn't believe it," said the 34-year-old left-hander from Bryan.

Ferrell took a one-stroke penalty and dropped behind the lake, 110 yards from the green. His wedge shot was 30 feet short of the hole.

Meanwhile, Collins misclubbed with a nine-iron and was 75 feet from the pin on the fringe. His first putt, for a victory-clinching birdie three, was eight feet short.

Ferrell sank a 30-foot putt to save an unbelievable par. Collins needed his eight-footer to force another extra hole. He missed, inches to the left of the cup.

"I really didn't think I could make four," said Ferrell. "I thought I could make five and halve the hole."

Instead, the club pro at Orchard Hills, was $3,000 richer. The first prize eclipsed his biggest payday in almost three years on the national tour. He won $2,800 in the 1971 Los Angeles Open.

"I'll feel this tomorrow. I'm still numb. My wife, Sherry, will get most of the money," said the father of three, breaking into a big grin.

Ferrell closed with rounds of 69 and 70 to tie Collins at 276, 12 under par for four trips around the Reid Park courses. Collins shot a blistering 65 in the morning, then faded to a 73 in the afternoon heat.

Roth, Hudson Lead PBA

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Mark Roth and Tommy Hudson continue their two-way battle for the lead in the official standings of the Professional Bowlers Association, but for the third straight week the pros have a new champion.

Sentence Men To Prison

Two men were sentenced to prison terms after pleading guilty to theft related offenses in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court Wednesday, and four others were given suspended sentences.

Timothy Eugene Lebo, 21, Columbus, was sentenced to concurrent six month to five year terms in the Mansfield Reformatory by Judge William Ammer.

Lebo pleaded guilty to charges of vandalism and receiving stolen property stemming from a May 18 incident north of Ashville.

Judge Ammer noted that Lebo is presently serving a sentence from Franklin County.

Haskell Orsbon, 22, Columbus, was sentenced to a four to 25 year term in the Mansfield Reformatory after he pleaded guilty to aggravated burglary.

An accompanying grand theft charge was nollied prosequere.

Orsbon, who was recently sentenced to a penal sentence by Franklin County Court, was charged locally May 11 with breaking into a house in the northeastern part of the county.

Four other defendants who pleaded guilty to a variety of charges were given suspended sentences and placed on probation by Judge Ammer.

Three years probation was ordered for Charles Eugene Davis, 28, Smithshire, Ill., who pleaded guilty to a charge of non-support.

In ordering probation, Judge Ammer suspended a one to five year term in the Mansfield Reformatory.

Davis was ordered to pay the regular amount of support plus an additional sum as to arrange for support of a minor child.

Judge Ammer noted that Davis had failed to make support payments since May 5, 1975.

Judge Ammer suspended a one to five year sentence in the Marysville Reformatory for Women he imposed against Lillie Edwards Sprouse, 38, Route 2, Ashville, and placed her on probation for five years.

Ms. Sprouse pleaded guilty to a charge of grand theft stemming from the illegal obtaining of Social Security benefits and food stamps in the amount of $8,578.

Three years probation was ordered for Cindy Sue Sturgell, 20, 238½ Scioto St., Ashville, who pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery and had been sentenced to a six month to five year term in the Marysville Reformatory for Women.

Judge Ammer ordered Ms. Sturgell to not have checking accounts, checks, credit cards, or credit card accounts, to seek counseling, and to make restitution.

Probation was continued for Kenneth Hamblin, 29, Columbus, who pleaded guilty to two violations of previously-imposed probation.

He was also sentenced to serve two months in the Pickaway County Jail and to pay court costs.

Hamblin pleaded guilty to a grand theft charge June 30 and was placed on probation for three months and sentenced to six months in the Pickaway County Jail at that time.

A pre-sentence report was ordered on Nevin T. Burger, Dayton, who pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to support minor children.

A capias was issued for the arrest of Arthur B. Tatman Jr., Columbus, who failed to appear for a final hearing Wednesday.

Tatman had pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand theft stemming from his failure to pay for food ordered at a local restaurant.

Judge Ammer also ordered Tatman's bond forfeited.

Shock probation was granted Gary Lee Martin, 24, Route 188, who had been serving a six month to five year term in the Mansfield Reformatory on two counts of passing bad checks.

Martin had spent 71 days in the reformatory. In granting shock probation, Judge Ammer ordered Martin to not have a checking account, checks, credit cards, or credit card accounts.

Campaign Is Heated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The campaign over Issue 1 to repeal Ohio's election day registration law has already begun to heat up, more than two months in advance of a statewide vote on the proposed constitutional amendment.

Reacting to indications that the state Democratic party plans a full scale campaign to defeat the amendment, the new executive director of Ohioans for Preservation of Honest Elections said he resented the partisan approach.

Arthur L. Peterson, insisting that OPHE would wage a bipartisan effort, singled out Ohio Democratic Chairman Paul Tipps, who has been cited by the Internal Revenue Service with civil tax fraud in connection with his 1973 returns.

"I think it comes with poor grace from a man whose own background at the moment is highly questionable," Peterson said at a news conference announcing his appointment.

Tipps, who has denied those charges, was out of the state Wednesday, and could not be reached for comment.

However, Patrick Leahy, executive director of the state Democratic party, agreed with the Ohio Wesleyan professor on one point. "It is a partisan issue," Leahy said. "It's a partisan issue on their part and that's even more evidenced by the fact that Art Peterson is the director (of OPHE)."

Peterson, chairman of the politics and government department at Ohio Wesleyan University's institute of practical politics, described himself as a moderate-conservative Republican.

"I've long been committed to attempting to expand the electorate, but at the same time retaining the integrity of the electoral system," he said.

Peterson said Democratic officials planned to import "a number of out of state people that will come in to tell Ohioans how to run their elections."

"I think the rank and file Democrats are going to go along with our efforts here and not the efforts of the state bosses," he said.

He conceded that most Democratic supporters of OPHE were election board officials who will be affected administratively by the new law. Peterson could not name any prominent Democrats connected with the movement to repeal the law.

Will It Fit On A T-Shirt?

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass. (AP) — In 1837 when Mary Lyon, the founder of Mount Holyoke College here was looking for a name for her new institution, a friend from nearby Amherst suggested "Pangynaskean Seminary." This Greek term for "all the powers of woman — physical, intellectual and moral," — never caught on, but it caught the attention of the press which laughingly reported the proposal. The unexpected publicity paid off. Suddenly Lyon's fledgling institution which was based upon what was then considered the daring and revolutionary idea of higher education for women, became known in households all over New England. Then there was a burst of financial and moral support for the venture which a few months later was named for a nearby mountain — Mount Holyoke.

Cable Car Idea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — It took him 20 years to convince Municipal Railway here his simple idea would save thousands of dollars, but cable car wire mechanic Al Eggen is being philosophical about it all.

"It's an amazingly simple idea," said Rod Bartholomew, 36, new superintendent of the Muni's cable cars who backed Eggen's idea. "I don't know why it wasn't done before."

He estimated that Eggen's idea would save the Muni about $100,000 a year, based on today's costs. It took only 12 hours recently to put it into effect at a cost of $3,400.

Eggen, 63, wondered why two underground cables were needed to power the Powell-Mason Cable cars. He began doodling on paper and eventually devised a way one cable could do the job of two, eliminating 1,100 feet of cable, 40 pulleys and about 57 yearly splices.

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth Sign.

FOR FRIDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Good judgment needed now. Where a project is nearing completion, try to force the pace if it will prevent loss of time or assets. Otherwise, you can "play it by ear."

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Fine Venus influences. You can take the high road enthusiastically; pursue worthwhile objectives with a good measure of attainment. Romance also favored.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Aspects are generous, but you will accomplish much more through teamwork than by going it alone. This is often difficult for the Gemini but, at times, it has its merits.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): You may feel the weight of pressure in certain job issues. Don't try to force your own views. Listen and learn. Superiors will be impressed.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): A minor flirtation could be a pleasant diversion, but don't let it take your mind off your work. There's much to be accomplished - profitably.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Do not wait for opportunities to materialize "out of the blue." Seek them out yourself. A period for exercising your lively imagination and good judgment.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Don't consider first thoughts only, nor first impressions. You could be mistaken about motivations, indications, meanings. Give all the benefit of the doubt.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): You may run into snags or obstacles - but you can handle them well. Pep up an old idea, keep your vision broad. Think over past experiences - and profit by them.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Jupiter influences extremely generous. A day in which to exercise your keen faculties and capitalize on your wealth of talents. Business matters especially favored.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Be careful not to mix friends and finances now. Arguments, mistrust on either side would be a distinct possibility. In other respects, day should go well.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): You may face some inconveniences but the result will justify them and will compensate if you handle situations maturely. Broaden your mental horizons, perk up enthusiasm.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Stellar influences suggest that you expand - within reason. Tread cautiously in new areas but go forward confidently on familiar paths. Progressive ideas stimulated.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a warm personality, a fine intellect and a willingness to work hard to reach your goals, which are usually highly estimable. At times, however, you lose confidence in yourself and fret if things don't seem to be going as well as they should. Try to bolster your optimism in such cases and realize that the Virgin has been gifted with great willpower which, if he would but use it to his utmost, will see him through anything. Also, try to curb an inclination to be overly critical of others. Fields in which you could make your greatest success: politics, statesmanship, diplomacy, music, political economy or science. Birthdate of: Henry George, political economist.

Farm Bureau Discusses Grain Supplies With Farmers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two Ohio Farm Bureau officials toured the state Wednesday, discussing with farmers the problem of abundant supplies of grain and resulting declining prices.

Wallace Hirschfeld, farm bureau president, and C. William Swank, vice president, met with farmers during stops in Wooster, Lancaster, Dayton and Bowling Green.

"We don't have a miracle cure," said Hirschfeld, "but we want our members to know that we will do everything possible to assist farmers in correcting the situation as soon as possible."

Hirschfeld said favorable worldwide weather the past two years has resulted in bumper crops and an over abundant supply situation.

"Unless drought or similar adverse conditions would happen to hit one of the major grain producing areas in the world in the next year or two, there is no way to work out from under the over supply situation unless some definite actions are taken," Hirschfeld said.

The two farm bureau leaders recommended several courses of action to help remedy the situation.

One course, said Swank, would be to increase Commodity Credit Corp. loans to developing countries and all-out promotion of cash grain sales.

"Why not sell all the U.S. grain we can in exports and give the rest to hungry countries who can't afford to buy it," said Swank.

Farm Prices Continue To Sag

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm commodity prices are continuing to sag under the burden of huge harvest prospects this year, declining another 3 per cent from July 15 to Aug. 15, the third monthly skid in a row.

The Agriculture Department said Wednesday that lower farm prices for soybeans, corn, hogs, broilers and potatoes contributed most to the decline. Overall, commodity prices were down 6 per cent from Aug. 15, 1976.

Farm expenses, meanwhile, declined an average of one-half of 1 per cent last month, due to lower feed costs, the department's Crop Reporting Board said.

The index of feed grain and hay prices dropped 10 per cent from mid-July. Corn, at $1.64 a bushel, was down 24 cents, and oats dropped 11.4 cents to 90.6 cents a bushel. Barley, at $1.50, declined 3 cents a bushel from July 15.

After USDA issued its price report, officials announced they are putting into effect a price support loan increase for 1977-crop feed grains. The increase was indicated Monday by Deputy Secretary John White when he announced plans for a wheat acreage set-aside program to trim production next year.

The corn loan rate for 1977, effective immediately, is now $2 a bushel, up from the $1.75 previously set. Other feed grain increases include: barley, $1.63 a bushel and $1.50 previously;

oats $1.03 and $1; rye $1.70 and $1.50; and sorghum $1.90 and $1.70.

The sorghum rate is equal to $3.39 per 100 pounds, up from the $3.04 previously set.

Officials noted that the higher feed grain loan rates — the amount farmers can borrow from USDA by using their crops as collateral — are the same as called for in 1977 by the new farm bill waiting final action by Congress.

The department said farmers who have already put 1977 feed grain under loan can obtain an additional disbursement based on the new rates by contacting offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The monthly price report showed that beef cattle averaged $37.40 per 100 pounds on Aug. 15, down 20 cents from July. Hogs, at $42.80 per 100 pounds, dropped $2.10 during the month.

Wheat averaged $2.02 as of Aug. 15, compared with $2 on July 15. Soybeans were $5.34 a bushel against $6.30 in July.

Upland cotton averaged 64.5 cents a pound against 60.4 on July 15.

The Aug. 15 parity ratio declined again to 64 per cent from 65 on July 15 and 71 per cent on Aug. 15 of last year.

The mid-August reading of 64 per cent was the lowest since the indicator was 55 per cent in March 1933. A spokesman said that was the third lowest since USDA began keeping records. The other low mark was 58 per cent in December 1932, in the midst of the Depression.

Theoretically the parity ratio shows that farmers have the same purchasing power as they had in 1910-14, a period in which farm prices and expenses were considered to be in relative balance.

Student Barred From Attending Ohio School

CINCINNATI (AP) — Blonde, blue-eyed Tamara Anderson must be content with an extended summer vacation while her friends in suburban Greenhills are back at school.

"Of course this is a real tearjerker," said Supt. David Harcum, "but that well-mannered young lady is not the issue."

Harcum said the issue is a complicated set of state laws that determine school attendance coupled with case law and opinions dating back to 1927 from the office of the Ohio Attorney General.

Tamara has lived the most part of her eight years with her great uncle and aunt, Robert and Wanda Brady, as a "family arrangement." Her mother, Debra Massengill, lives in Muncie, Ind.

Last February Tamara returned from Muncie and entered Damon Road Elementary School. In May, the Bradys were notified that Tamara would not be allowed back in September unless the Bradys filed to become her legal guardians.

The Bradys filed suit and lost Monday. Hamilton County Judge Thomas Nurre said the school board was right. A child must go to school in the district where her parent or guardian resides.

The Bradys said they will appeal and if necessary, place Tamara in a private school. They will not, however, seek to make the girl their ward.

"The whole thing is just crazy," said Mrs. Brady, acknowledging pledges of support from neighbors and strangers alike. "To her (Tamara) it's a lark, being on television and the notoriety of it."

Harcum said his upper middle class suburban school district has been gleaning out up to 25 falsely registered students a year since 1972.

The school board is also worried about its legal posture in light of a desegregation suit against Cincinnati and 19 suburban districts. They have ordered no outside enrollments.

"The law says she has to go to school so I'm going to leave it up to the law," said Mrs. Brady. "We're not concerned yet but that depends on how long this drags on."

"They have alternatives," said Harcum. "We want children to go to school. We do all we can to work with people." Harcum said only a court order or an order from a welfare agency could get Tamara into school here.

"It seems like we've lost our freedoms," said Mrs. Brady. "It makes you wonder why you pay your taxes."

Harcum said he turned down enrollment requests for about 150 pupils last year. The 6,000 pupil district would be overrun if enrollments were opened to those outside, he noted.

Harcum said the district has an obligation to the taxpayers and to the law. He said liability is a major factor. Only parents can give permission for medical treatment, for discipline.

"You can deal only with the parents and guardians in these things," Harcum said. "I could tell you some real horror stories."

"It's a matter of principle that she goes to Damon Road," said Mrs. Brady.

August Gasoline Taxes Distributed

August gasoline tax checks totaling $5,121,579 were distributed today by State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson's office to Ohio counties, townships, cities and villages.

Circleville received $8,420, Ashville $1,469, New Holland $531, South Bloomfield $521, Tarlton $308, Williamsport $628.

Ferguson said that each of the state's 88 counties received $35,000, or $3,080,000, while the state's 1,320 townships received $1,200 each, or $1,584,000 of the total distribution.

Ashtabula, with the most townships, received $32,400 for distribution to them while Cuyahoga County, with the least, received $4,800 for their townships.

The remaining $457,579 went to 944 cities and villages, based upon $1 per motor vehicle registered within their borders, as set forth in latest registration compilation.

Appointments, Resignations From City Police

Circleville Safety Director John McGinnis and Circleville Chief of Police Robert Temple today announced one resignation and three appointments to the Circleville Police Department.

Richard S. Slater, a security officer at Children's Hospital, and Jon M. Kinney, a security officer at Doctor's Hospital, have been appointed as patrolmen on the city police force. Both men currently reside in Columbus. Paul Schriener has also been appointed as a civilian dispatcher for the department. Shriener started his duties today, Slater and Kinney will begin on Sept. 16.

The department has also received the resignation of Sgt. Ken Henn. Henn resigned to accept a position with the Pickaway County Sheriff's Office.

Legislation Changes Legal Ad Rates

A bill allowing newspapers to charge open ad rates for legal advertising has been signed by Gov. James Rhodes. The legislation becomes effective Sept. 23 and eliminates the need for affidavits to verify rates and circulations.

The Herald will have a deadline requiring legal ads to be submitted at least two days before publication.

Farm Bureau Discusses Grain Supplies With Farmers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two Ohio Farm Bureau officials toured the state Wednesday, discussing with farmers the problem of abundant supplies of grain and resulting declining prices.

Wallace Hirschfeld, farm bureau president, and C. William Swank, vice president, met with farmers during stops in Wooster, Lancaster, Dayton and Bowling Green.

"We don't have a miracle cure," said Hirschfeld, "but we want our members to know that we will do everything possible to assist farmers in correcting the situation as soon as possible."

Hirschfeld said favorable worldwide weather the past two years has resulted in bumper crops and an over abundant supply situation.

"Unless drought or similar adverse conditions would happen to hit one of the major grain producing areas in the world in the next year or two, there is no way to work out from under the over supply situation unless some definite actions are taken," Hirschfeld said.

The two farm bureau leaders recommended several courses of action to help remedy the situation.

One course, said Swank, would be to increase Commodity Credit Corp. loans to developing countries and all-out promotion of cash grain sales.

"Why not sell all the U.S. grain we can in exports and give the rest to hungry countries who can't afford to buy it," said Swank.

recommended he delay a decision on reducing U.S. wheat production next year with a setaside program.

Swank said the farm bureau "feels this country definitely needs a set-aside program" both for wheat and for corn.

Hirschfeld suggested that farmers also explore industrial uses of grain.

"Gasohol can be produced from both good and poor grades of grain and it is feasible to use the fuel in tractors and cars all over the nation," he said.

Convention highlights include a President's Club Luncheon, a buffet for leading agents, and a breakfast honoring people with CLU and CPCU designations. Agents and their spouses will also be guests at a banquet during the convention.

Farm Prices Continue To Sag

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm commodity prices are continuing to sag under the burden of huge harvest prospects this year, declining another 3 per cent from July 15 to Aug. 15, the third monthly skid in a row.

The Agriculture Department said Wednesday that lower farm prices for soybeans, corn, hogs, broilers and potatoes contributed most to the decline. Overall, commodity prices were down 6 per cent from Aug. 15, 1976.

Farm expenses, meanwhile, declined an average of one-half of 1 per cent last month, due to lower feed costs, the department's Crop Reporting Board said.

The index of feed grain and hay

prices dropped 10 per cent from mid-July. Corn, at $1.64 a bushel, was down 24 cents, and oats dropped 11.4 cents to 90.6 cents a bushel. Barley, at $1.50, declined 3 cents a bushel from July 15.

After USDA issued its price report, officials announced they are putting into effect a price support loan increase for 1977-crop feed grains. The increase was indicated Monday by Deputy Secretary John White when he announced plans for a wheat acreage set-aside program to trim production next year.

The corn loan rate for 1977, effective immediately, is now $2 a bushel, up from the $1.75 previously set. Other feed grain increases include: barley, $1.63 a bushel and $1.50 previously;

oats $1.03 and $1; rye $1.70 and $1.50; and sorghum $1.90 and $1.70.

The sorghum rate is equal to $3.39 per 100 pounds, up from the $3.04 previously set.

Officials noted that the higher feed grain loan rates — the amount farmers can borrow from USDA by using their crops as collateral — are the same as called for in 1977 by the new farm bill waiting final action by Congress.

The department said farmers who have already put 1977 feed grain under loan can obtain an additional disbursement based on the new rates by contacting offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The monthly price report showed that beef cattle averaged $37.40 per 100 pounds on Aug. 15, down 20 cents from July. Hogs, at $42.80 per 100 pounds, dropped $2.10 during the month.

Wheat averaged $2.02 as of Aug. 15, compared with $2 on July 15. Soybeans were $5.34 a bushel against $6.30 in July.

Upland cotton averaged 64.5 cents a pound against 60.4 on July 15.

The Aug. 15 parity ratio declined again to 64 per cent from 65 on July 15 and 71 per cent on Aug. 15 of last year.

The mid-August reading of 64 per cent was the lowest since the indicator was 55 per cent in March 1933. A spokesman said that was the third lowest since USDA began keeping records. The other low mark was 58 per cent in December 1932, in the midst of the Depression.
